A Dynamic Community

The Ohio State University Moritz College of Law, founded in 1891, is one of the nation's premier public law schools. A collegial community of approximately 609 students and 53 full-time professors, Moritz is known for its rigorous academic program, the pioneering research of its world-class faculty, a deep commitment to teaching and professional training, and the development of future leaders.

Nested within one of the country's largest comprehensive research universities, Moritz has one of the smallest enrollments of comparable law schools which fosters meaningful interaction and key relationships. The curriculum features more than 140 courses and seminars that cover a broad range of established and emerging legal fields. Moreover, students gain real lawyering experience through our highly regarded clinical education program, practical skills courses, law journals, moot court program, and other professional opportunities.

A Community of Scholars

The College's distinguished alumni reside in all 50 states and 21 other countries and include Ohio Supreme Court, federal appeals, and district court justices and judges; current and former U.S. senators, representatives, and governors; managing partners in law firms of all sizes; leaders of Fortune 500 corporations; and attorneys with nonprofit organizations and public interest law firms.

Law Journals

Ohio State Law Journal

The Ohio State Law Journal has been ranked one of the top 30 law journals in the country based on frequency of citations. Published six times annually by a student board and staff, the journal includes articles by noted legal scholars, law faculty, and commentators nationwide.

Ohio State Journal on Dispute Resolution

The Ohio State Journal on Dispute Resolution is the college's scholarly journal devoted specifically to issues relating to alternative dispute resolution. Published four times annually, the Journal on Dispute Resolution is the official journal of the ABA's Section on Dispute Resolution.

Ohio State Journal of Criminal Law

The Ohio State Journal of Criminal Law is a peer-evaluated, faculty-student cooperative venture, published semi-annually. The journal is a forum for important scholarship written by academics and professionals in the criminal justice field, providing useful and serious— but also interesting and provocative— discourse on critical issues in the field.

I/S: A Journal of Law and Policy for the Information Society

The I/S: A Journal of Law and Policy for the Information Society is a cooperative venture with students and faculty at Carnegie-Mellon University. It is an interdisciplinary journal of research and commentary concentrating on the intersection of law, policy, and information technology.

Ohio State Entrepreneurial Business Law Journal

The Ohio State Entrepreneurial Business Law Journal provides an excellent opportunity for students to explore the intersection of business and the law. Created and managed by students, this semi-annual journal explores the legal issues facing entrepreneurs, small-business owners, and venture capitalists.

Cutting Edge Curriculum

PROGRAM ON LAW AND LEADERSHIP

Launched in fall 2007, this program is a unique and innovative way to make leadership training an integral part of the law school experience, something few schools offer.

ELECTION LAW @ MORITZ

Started in 2004, ELG@M focuses on the legal issues surrounding elections and has secured grants, conducted in-depth research, and generated thousands of media articles in a timely and non-partisan manner.

ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

The nationally ranked dispute resolution program has won national awards for both faculty and student work.

CRIMINAL LAW

The criminal law faculty at Moritz have written, blogged, lectured, and commented their way to national recognition and prestige. Since its inception in 2003, the Ohio State Journal on Criminal Law is recognized as one of the top journals in its field.

BUSINESS LAW

The Distinguished Business Practitioner in Residence program welcomes practicing lawyers or judges from around the world to live near students in the South Gateway area, teach one-credit courses, speak at mentoring lunches, and meet with students.

Honors & Awards

MORITZ MERIT SCHOLARSHIPS

Moritz Merit Scholarships include full-in-state tuition plus a stipend and are awarded to the College's most exceptional students each year for extraordinary academic credentials and leadership abilities.

LEADERSHIP SCHOLARSHIPS

The Ohio State University Moritz College of Law offers three-year scholarships to incoming high-achieving candidates demonstrating strong leadership potential.

DEAN'S AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE SCHOLARSHIPS

Dean's Award for Excellence Scholarships are intended to recognize a select group of entering students who demonstrate potential to be among the academic leaders of the class.

ACADEMIC MERIT SCHOLARSHIPS

Academic Merit Scholarships are awarded to entering students who have a record of significant academic accomplishment and potential for success in their legal studies.

PUBLIC SERVICE FELLOWS PROGRAM

The Public Service Fellows Program encourages students to perform pro bono service by recognizing their successful completion of significant volunteer hours of legal or mediation service. There are four levels of distinction, ranging from a Public Service Fellow, those students who volunteered 50 to 149 hours of legal service, to Public Service Fellow with Dean's Highest Honors, those students who accumulated 450 or more hours.
