RE: Motion to Intervene in NAACP v. Cortes

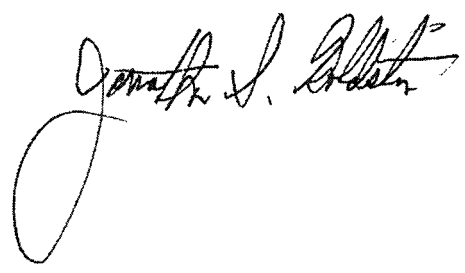

Dear Judge Bartle:

Thank you for permitting me to participate in the meeting in your chambers on Friday afternoon. Being present gave me enough new information about the case to have a substantive discussion with my clients.

Now, with a better understanding of the nature of the NAACP v. Cortes matter, my clients have decided to withdraw their Motion to Intervene and instead file an amicus brief as the Court suggested.

With the Court's permission, we intend to file the amicus brief by 10am Tuesday morning unless the Court directs us to file it earlier.

Gratefully,

cc:

Mike Churchill
