JOINT STIPULATION AND ORDER

Counsel for Plaintiffs and Defendants have conferred and agree to an extension of the joint stipulation and order submitted and signed on April 11, 2016. (Doc. No. 16, 18.). Defendant agrees that Defendant will not do the following prior to the earlier of: (a) this Court’s final, appealable order or (b) July 11, 2016:

- (1) Issue or cause to issue any roll-maintenance directive that includes or requires counties in Ohio to implement the Supplemental Process or any process as described within pages two and three of Exhibit “A” or to send voters SOS Form 10-S or a similar confirmation notice, except as part of the NCOA Process;
- (2) Send or cause to be sent any confirmation notices to any registered voters under the Supplemental Process or any process as described within pages two and three of Exhibit “A”.
- (3) This Order does not apply to or affect any actions pursuant to the NCOA process, which is also described in Exhibit “A”.

Plaintiffs continue to withdraw their motion for a temporary restraining order without prejudice to their right to renew it on or after July 6, 2016, should no ruling on the merits have issued by that date.

The Parties have entered into this Stipulation for the sole purpose of furthering the efficient resolution of this matter. Defendant does not admit to or agree with the assertions in Plaintiffs' Complaint.

Respectfully submitted,

MIKE DEWINE
Ohio Attorney General
