Re: King Lincoln, et al. v. Brunner, et al., CV 06-0745 (Marbley, J.)

Dear Mr. Bonini,

I am writing on behalf of the pro se litigant group in the above case. I was directed to you by the judge's law clerk, whom I spoke with today.

Last week, two members of our pro se litigant group saw an entry on the Moritz law web site which indicated that Judge Marbley had made a decision regarding our being allowed to intervene in the above case.

However, none of the eight pro se litigants have, as of this date, received any decision by mail which is necessary because not all of the litigants have internet. Apparently, the newspapers have received this decision even before any of our members were aware of it.

Our understanding is that we have a certain period of time to respond to decisions, yet without notification, we question the information on the Moritz law web site and our being held to any response date requirement.

Kindly advise or help.

Respectfully,

Marlys J. Barbee
