When you docket your brief in ECF, the correct entry for a cross-appeal is "First Brief," "Second Brief," and so forth.

A party desiring oral argument must include a statement in the brief setting forth the reason(s) why oral argument should be heard. See 6th Cir. R. 34(a). If the docket entry for your brief indicates that you have requested oral argument but the statement itself is missing, you will be directed to file a corrected brief.

In scheduling appeals for oral argument, the court will do what it can to avoid any dates which counsel have called to its attention as presenting a conflict. If you have any such dates, you should address a letter to the Clerk advising of the conflicted dates.

Counsel are strongly encouraged to read the latest version of the Sixth Circuit Rules at www.ca6.uscourts.gov, in particular Rules 28 and 30. If you still have questions after reviewing the information on the web site, please contact the Clerk's office before you file your brief.

Sincerely yours,
