DEFENDANTS’ ANSWER TO PLAINTIFFS’ FIRST AMENDED ORIGINAL COMPLAINT

Defendants Dallas County, Texas (“Dallas County”) and Bruce Sherbet (“Sherbet”), in his capacity as Election Administrator for Dallas County, Texas (collectively “Defendants”) file their Original Answer to Plaintiffs’ First Amended Original Complaint (“Complaint”), as follows:

I.
ADMISSIONS AND DENIALS

1. Defendants admit that certain polling stations in Dallas County, Texas utilize optically scanned ballots, which scan paper ballots. Defendants deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 1 of Plaintiffs’ Complaint.

2. Defendants lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief about the truth of the allegations in paragraph 2 and, therefore, deny the allegations in paragraph 2 of Plaintiffs' Complaint.

3. Defendants lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief about the truth of the allegations in paragraph 3 and, therefore, deny the allegations in paragraph 3 of Plaintiffs' Complaint.

4. Defendants lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief about the truth of the allegations in paragraph 4 and, therefore, deny the allegations in paragraph 4 of Plaintiffs' Complaint.

5. Defendants lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief about the truth of the allegations in paragraph 5 and, therefore, deny the allegations in paragraph 5 of Plaintiffs' Complaint.

6. Defendants lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief about the truth of the allegations in paragraph 6 and, therefore, deny the allegations in paragraph 6 of Plaintiffs' Complaint.

7. Defendants lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief about the truth of the allegations in paragraph 7 and, therefore, deny the allegations in paragraph 7 of Plaintiffs' Complaint.

8. Defendants lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief about the truth of the allegations in paragraph 8 and, therefore, deny the allegations in paragraph 8 of Plaintiffs' Complaint.

9. Defendants lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief about the truth of the allegations in paragraph 9 and, therefore, deny the allegations in paragraph 9 of Plaintiffs' Complaint.

10. Defendants deny the allegations in paragraph 10 of Plaintiffs' Complaint.

11. Defendants admit that Section 65.007 of the Texas Election Code states:

(a) In an election in which a single square is provided on the ballot for casting a straight-party vote, the tally lists shall contain spaces for tallying those votes.

(b) Except as provided by Subsection (c) or (d), each straight-party vote shall be tallied for the party receiving the vote instead of being tallied for the individual candidates of the party. The total number of straight-party votes tallied for each party shall be added to the total votes received for each of the party nominees individually.

(c) If a ballot indicates a straight-party vote and a vote for an opponent of one or more of that party's nominees, a vote shall be counted for the opponent and for each of the party's other nominees whether or not any of those nominees have received individual votes.

(d) If a ballot indicates straight-party votes for more than one party, those votes may not be tallied and a vote shall be counted for each candidate receiving an individual vote if no other individual votes are received in that race. If no candidate receives an individual vote, the portion of the ballot for offices may not be counted.

Defendants deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 11 of Plaintiffs' Complaint.

12. Defendants admit that Section 65.007 of the Texas Election Code was enacted in 1985, and made effective January 1, 1986.
