POSTPONED BUSINESS

The following bills were laid before the house as postponed business:

SB 420 ON SECOND READING

(V. Taylor - House Sponsor)

SB 420, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to determining eligibility for indigent health care.

SB 420 was read second time on May 12 and was postponed until 7 a.m. May 13.

SB 420 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE V. GONZALES: Mr. Taylor, when the bill was heard in committee, I remember there were a couple of versions of it. One of the versions that had caused concern that I questioned you about was whether or not if you have a county person, they provide indigent care, and somebody happens to show up there that has a sponsor, but they haven't revealed that they have a sponsor, and the person doesn't ask, and it falls through the cracks—they don't ask the person about sponsorship. Is the county going to be denied indigent care funds because one of their employees made a mistake? Is this the version of the bill that would have allowed for funds to be cut and not provided to the county?

REPRESENTATIVE V. TAYLOR: No, it is not, Madam Chairwoman.

V. GONZALES: So, this is the one—this is after the substitute, where we’re not—I think your substitute was the one that was the most offensive, I guess, to us, and then you went back to your original one, correct?

V. TAYLOR: Correct. This is the version as filed, and was passed out of the senate on their local calendar with bipartisan support, that has nothing to do with funding for indigent care programs. It merely empowers indigent care programs for counties that have them to decide for themselves if they want to deem the income and assets for U.S. citizen sponsors for resident legal aliens for eligibility purposes.
V. GONZALES: Okay, and the other concern that had been raised was whether or not they are already authorized to do this, because federal law and the form that they sign says if you’re a sponsor, you’re agreeing to provide for the person you’re sponsoring, for the immigrant you’re sponsoring. And so, if federal law already has that in the contract between them—whether or not it’s applicable to the counties—

V. TAYLOR: Right. There is a question, as you point out, and this law puts that question to rest. It says absolutely the counties have the right to do this. And I think you and I’ve—and I appreciate you. We’ve had long conversations, both in public and in private about this, and it is my belief, should the State of Texas choose, it can tell counties they cannot deem the income and assets for U.S. citizen sponsors for resident legal aliens. But this, I think, is more consistent with what the federal government intended in 1882, and with subsequent updating to their laws, that U.S. citizen sponsors are indeed responsible for the health care of the people they bring to this country. And I would submit that is not only a legal obligation, as clearly documented in the affidavit support, but also a moral obligation. If you’re going to bring someone into this country, sponsor them, and be responsible for them, I think it is incumbent on that U.S. citizen to truly be responsible for them and let them try to fend for themselves.

V. GONZALES: Well, and I’m not trying to say if you agreed in a document that you’d do so, that you shouldn’t do so. My concern is that we, as Representative Walle was mentioning earlier, we don’t want people that are truly indigent to not be able to get care that they need. I know there are some exceptions; I think, even under the contract, that you can’t deny certain things to people, certain types of care. But we don’t want people who are truly ill to not be able to receive the care that they need, because there’s going to be a requirement that asks for documents as to whether or not they’ve been sponsored. Another point that I wanted to ask—another question that I wanted to ask is, only the person that signs the sponsor form, their assets would be looked at, right? Not the spouse?

V. TAYLOR: That’s correct. And some resident legal aliens have multiple sponsors, and so then every sponsor could be deemed by the county. And again, if the county wants to—we’re not telling the counties what to do, we are allowing them to do something that they can almost certainly do by federal law.

V. GONZALES: Okay, and again for intent purposes, there is no punishment aspect here, that a county is going to lose funding, is that correct?

V. TAYLOR: No, there is no reference to any funding in this bill.

SECTION ___. Subchapter A, Chapter 2502, Insurance Code, is amended by adding Section 2502.006 to read as follows:

Sec. 2502.006. CERTAIN EXTRA HAZARDOUS COVERAGES PROHIBITED. (a) A title insurance company may not insure against loss or damage sustained by reason of any claim that under federal bankruptcy, state insolvency, or similar creditor’s rights laws the transaction vesting title in the insured as shown in the policy or creating the lien of the insured mortgage is:

(1) a preference or preferential transfer under 11 U.S.C. Section 547;
(2) a fraudulent transfer under 11 U.S.C. Section 548;
(3) a transfer that is fraudulent as to present and future creditors under Section 24.005, Business & Commerce Code, or a similar law of another state; or
(4) a transfer that is fraudulent as to present creditors under Section 24.006, Business & Commerce Code, or a similar law of another state.

(b) The commissioner may by rule designate coverages that violate this section. It is not a defense against a claim that a title insurance company has violated this section that the commissioner has not adopted a rule under this subsection.

(c) Title insurance issued in or on a form prescribed by the commissioner shall be considered to comply with this section.

(d) Nothing in this section prohibits title insurance with respect to liens, encumbrances, or other defects to title to land that:

(1) appear in the public records before the date on which the contract of title insurance is made;

(2) occur or result from transactions before the transaction vesting title in the insured or creating the lien of the insured mortgage; or

(3) result from failure to timely perfect or record any instrument before the date on which the contract of title insurance is made.

(e) A title insurance company may not engage in the business of title insurance in this state if the title insurance company provides insurance of the type prohibited by Subsection (a) anywhere in the United States, except to the extent that the laws of another state require the title insurance company to provide that type of insurance.

SECTION 2502.006, Insurance Code, as added by this Act, applies only to an insurance policy that is delivered, issued for delivery, or renewed on or after January 1, 2012. A policy delivered, issued for delivery, or renewed before January 1, 2012, is governed by the law as it existed immediately before the effective date of this Act, and that law is continued in effect for that purpose.

Sec. 2.071. CONFLICT OF INTEREST. (a) A person may not be a member of the commission and may not be a commission employee employed in a "bona fide executive, administrative, or professional capacity," as that phrase is used for purposes of establishing an exemption to the overtime provisions of the federal Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (29 U.S.C. Section 201 et seq.), if:

(1) the person is an officer, employee, or paid consultant of a Texas trade association in the field of horse or greyhound racing or breeding; or

(2) the person's spouse is an officer, manager, or paid consultant of a Texas trade association in the field of horse or greyhound racing or breeding.

(b) A person may not be a member of the commission or act as the general counsel to the commission if the person is required to register as a lobbyist under Chapter 305, Government Code, because of the person's activities for compensation on behalf of a profession related to the operation of the commission.

(c) In this section, "Texas trade association" means a cooperative and voluntarily joined statewide association of business or professional competitors in this state designed to assist its members and its industry or profession in dealing with mutual business or professional problems and in promoting their common interest.
