Mr. Speaker, members, this resolution provides an opportunity for this body to show our appreciation for our retired public educators who have provided an invaluable service to the people of this great state. We have some very special guests joining us today, both in the gallery and on the dais. We have TRTA representatives on the dais: Tim Lee, the executive director; Bill Barnes, TRTA legislative coordinator; Carlos Ortiz, state legislative chairman for District 20; Ms. Francis Plemmons, secretary/treasurer; and last but not least, my constituent and good friend, Bill Skinner, TRTA member and a dear friend. And joining us in the gallery are several members of TRTA that have taken the time to come to Austin to be with us today. I especially want to welcome those of you who are here from my district, and I'd ask you all to please stand up and be recognized. Thank you very much for being here.

Members, TRTA has a membership base of approximately 70,000 retirees that continually work to improve their local communities throughout the state. In 2010, TRTA members selflessly gave approximately 5.8 million hours of volunteer service, equivalent to a value of more than $121 million. For this, and the many other things they do, we are all forever indebted to them, to you. TRTA members will be visiting our offices this afternoon, and I encourage you and your staff to take the time to visit with them. TRTA members, we owe you a great deal of gratitude. Thank you for what you have done for our children. Thank you for what you have done for us. We understand what you are going through. We are listening. We are getting your hundreds of letters. EMERGENCY CALENDAR
SENATE BILLS

The following bills were laid before the house and read second time:

TX_00002932
JA_002080
CSSB 14 ON SECOND READING

CSSB 14, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to requirements to vote, including presenting proof of identification; providing criminal penalties.

CSSB 14 - POINT OF ORDER

Representative Walle raised a point of order against further consideration of CSSB 14 under Rule 6, Section 16 of the House Rules on the grounds that the calendar is ineligible for consideration.

The speaker overruled the point of order, speaking as follows:

Mr. Walle raises a point of order pursuant to Rule 6, Section 16 that the initial printing of the calendar contained an error that prevents further consideration. The chair has reviewed the original and revised calendar and finds that the purpose of Rule 6, Section 16 has been complied with. The point of order is respectfully overruled.

CSSB 14 - POINT OF ORDER

Representative Walle raised a point of order against further consideration of CSSB 14 under Rule 6, Section 16 of the House Rules on the grounds that the calendar is ineligible for consideration.

The speaker overruled the point of order, speaking as follows:

Mr. Walle raises a point of order under Rule 6, Section 16 on the grounds that the corrected calendar is not properly in order for consideration and is not eligible for consideration at this time. A similar error occurred in HB 1111 during the 79th Legislature. In that case, an error was discovered and a new calendar was printed and considered after a two-hour layout. The chair noted in that case that the error in the calendar was corrected and was laid out more than two hours. The chair finds no violation under Rule 6, Section 16. The point of order is respectfully overruled.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

REPRESENTATIVE GALLEGO: Mr. Speaker, just a parliamentary inquiry so that I, if you don't mind, can understand the line of reasoning behind the—Mr. Walle's point of order was that Rule 6, Section 16 doesn't provide, as I read the rule. The rule indicates that "deviations from the calendar as posted shall not be permitted, except that the Committee on Calendars shall be authorized to prepare and post, not later than two hours before the house convenes, a supplemental daily calendar." So the two-hour notice under the rules applies to the supplemental daily calendar, is that not correct?

SPEAKER STRAUS: Mr. Gallego, under Rule 6, Section 16, deviations from the calendar are permitted, if they are permitted by the Committee on Calendars.

GALLEGO: Mr. Speaker, the sentence reads "deviations from the calendars as posted shall not be permitted, except in the case of the supplemental calendar."
SPEAKER: Mr. Gallego, the phrase "except" means there are deviations that are permitted.

GALLEGO: But, the exception is listed, is it not, Mr. Speaker? The exception is the supplemental daily calendar, which can be printed two hours before the house convenes.

SPEAKER: Mr. Gallego, there was a printing error in this calendar that was discovered and it's been corrected.

GALLEGO: The issue, Mr. Speaker, as I understand Mr. Walle's point of order, is that under the rules, revised calendars don't exist; supplemental calendars exist. And this was not remedied through a supplemental calendar, it was remedied so that the posting should—if we're going to do the supplemental calendar, and the posting, and the two-hour notice, then this was not a supplemental calendar which we all receive on our desks. As the routine course of the house's business, we receive supplemental calendars. And in this instance, we didn't receive a supplemental calendar, we received a revised calendar, which would seem to indicate that—I guess the difficulty for me is that you can't have it—the argument that you can't have it both ways. If it is a supplemental calendar, and there is a two-hour notice, and there is a deviation, that's fine, but if the argument is that it's a revised calendar and all this revised calendar does is take the place of the first one, then it seems that that timing should relate back. The posting notice should relate back, as well.

SPEAKER: Thank you, Mr. Gallego, for your inquiry. This is not the first time that a printing error has occurred in our calendars. On May 15 of 1997, for instance, an error in the printing was corrected under the title "Corrected Daily House Calendar." On May 20 of 1999, a correction was made under the "Corrected Daily House Calendar." And, similarly, on Tuesday, July 19, 2005, the correction was made under "Revised Daily House Calendar."

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

Representative Walle moved to print remarks between Representative Gallego and the speaker.

The motion prevailed.

CSSB 14 - POINT OF ORDER

Representative Farrar raised a point of order against further consideration of CSSB 14 under Rule 4, Section 11 and Rule 4, Section 12 of the House Rules on the grounds that proper notice of the committee meeting was not given and the committee meeting was not open to the public.

The speaker overruled the point of order, speaking as follows:

Representative Farrar raises a point of order under Rule 4, Section 11 and 12. Representative Farrar indicates that the meeting of the Calendars Committee began at 10:07 p.m., and that the Capitol was closed and access to the meeting room may have been denied. While the Calendars Committee did not begin meeting until 10:07 p.m., the meeting was initially posted for 9 p.m. As noted on the State Preservation Board website, the hours of the Capitol are normally between 7 a.m. and 10 p.m. but are extended during legislative sessions, including during house committee meetings. It appears that the provisions of Rule 4, Section 11, were complied with. The point of order is respectfully overruled.

CSSB 14 - POINT OF ORDER

Representative Martinez Fischer raised a point of order against further consideration of CSSB 14 under Rule 4, Section 32(c) and Rule 4, Section 32(f) of the House Rules on the grounds that the bill analysis is incorrect.

The speaker overruled the point of order, speaking as follows:

Representative Martinez Fischer raises a point of order under Rule 4, Section 32 in that the bill analysis fails to discuss changes on page 11, line 7 and page 11, line 27 of the bill. Specifically, Representative Martinez Fischer argues that the bill analysis fails to compare the bill to existing law and fails to list revision on page 11, line 27 as an express repeal. The chair has reviewed the bill and the bill analysis. The chair finds that the language of the bill analysis is not materially or substantially misleading and that the bill analysis, which is a summary, accurately reflects the substance of the bill. The point of order is respectfully overruled.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

REPRESENTATIVE MARTINEZ FISCHER: Thank you, Mr. Speaker—parliamentary inquiry.

SPEAKER STRAUS: State your inquiry.

MARTINEZ FISCHER: In the last part of your ruling you made reference to the bill analysis being a summary, did I hear that right?

SPEAKER: That's correct.

MARTINEZ FISCHER: Could you repeat that last line, would you indulge me? I couldn't hear back here.

SPEAKER: The bill analysis, which is a summary, accurately reflects the substance of the bill.

MARTINEZ FISCHER: And, Mr. Speaker, parliamentary inquiry.

SPEAKER: State your inquiry.

MARTINEZ FISCHER: As I read Rule 4, Section 32(c), I don't see—I don't see in the rules where members are given the opportunity to summarize the bill in the bill analysis. Fact is, I read Rule 4, Section 32(c), it says that the bill analysis must include in summary or section-by-section form a detailed analysis, not a summary analysis, a detailed analysis, and so did the chair misunderstand me when I made that argument? Is the chair under the impression that I am arguing that there should be a lesser standard than a detailed analysis? Because I didn't argue there should be a summary analysis—in fact, the rules are contrary to any members providing a summary analysis, it says it must be detailed, it can be in a summary or a section-by-section form, but the analysis must be detailed. Is the chair in agreement with that reading of the rule, as I see it?

SPEAKER: The chair has applied the precedence from prior sessions.

MARTINEZ FISCHER: And what precedence would that be, Mr. Chairman, Mr. Speaker?

SPEAKER: For instance, Mr. Martinez Fischer, there's a precedent from the 81st Session.

MARTINEZ FISCHER: The 81st Session, would the chair be inclined as to tell me what day of the journal that was?

SPEAKER: It was May 20th, 2009.

MARTINEZ FISCHER: May 20th, 2009. Okay, now in chair's ruling—

SPEAKER: It was on SB 865.

MARTINEZ FISCHER: SB 865? Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In the chair's ruling, in effect, the chair is saying that if we—if there is an express strike-through on a bill that changes the current state of the law, there is no requirement under Rule 4, Section 32(c) or Rule 4, Section 32(c)(3) that requires a member to notify the body and the general public that we are expressly changing a legal standard.

SPEAKER: Rule 4, Section 32, Subsection (c), Subsection (2) requires a list of provisions expressly, expressly repealed by the bill or resolution.

MARTINEZ FISCHER: So, the chair's interpretation, which I would deem to be narrow—is it the chair's interpretation that what triggers an express statement of a repeal of a law is the words in a bill or resolution that says, this article or this section is expressly repealed? Is that how the chair interprets Rule 4, Section 32(c)(2)?

SPEAKER: Just one moment, Mr. Martinez Fischer. Mr. Martinez Fischer, the point of order that you raised did not point us to a section of the law that contained an express repeal.

MARTINEZ FISCHER: Then the chair may have misunderstood my point of order. Shall I reassert it, Mr. Chairman? Because I crystal clearly remember arguing to the chair that when you take two sections of the bill and take us from a discretionary standard and change it to a mandatory standard, the strike-through of the discretionary is a repeal of a statute—in fact, guts the statute—and then I argued secondarily that when you go from a "shall" standard to a "must" standard, you again are expressly repealing a statute by a strike-through and, in fact, you are gutting the existing law. I offered that, and if the chair did not analyze the point of order under that analysis, then I would like to raise that point of order again.

SPEAKER: Mr. Martinez Fischer, the chair has already ruled on the point of order. You are welcome to lodge another point and I will request, the chair would request that the exchange be reduced to writing and entered into the journal.

TX_00002936
JA_002084
MARTINEZ FISCHER: I'm sorry, what about the last part, Mr. Speaker?

SPEAKER: I would request that the exchange between you and the chair be reduced to writing and entered into the journal.

MARTINEZ FISCHER: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, I was going to do the same thing. And so—but I don't have to raise another point of order—but the chair has suggested that portion of that argument was not considered by the chair because the chair was unaware that that was, that that objection was being raised, and if the chair has properly considered that, I'd like the chair to tell me there would be no need to raise an additional point of order.

SPEAKER: Mr. Martinez Fischer, the chair appreciates your arguments and the chair respectfully has overruled your point of order.

MARTINEZ FISCHER: I understand that Mr. Speaker, but on what grounds?

SPEAKER: That Rule 4, Section 32(c) has been complied with.

MARTINEZ FISCHER: In all aspects?

SPEAKER: And that the bill analysis is not substantially or materially misleading.

MARTINEZ FISCHER: And with regard to Rule 4, Section 32(c)(2), a repeal of a statute that's not explained in a detailed bill analysis, that's part of your ruling, as well?

SPEAKER: Yes, sir, it is.

MARTINEZ FISCHER: Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

The speaker moved to print remarks between Representative Martinez Fischer and the speaker.

The motion prevailed.

CSSB 14 - POINT OF ORDER

Representative Coleman raised a point of order against further consideration of CSSB 14 under Rule 4, Section 32(c) of the House Rules on the grounds that the bill analysis is materially or substantially misleading.

The speaker overruled the point of order, speaking as follows:

Mr. Coleman raises a point of order under Rule 4, Section 32. Specifically, the provision relating to the use of passports found on page 1 of the bill analysis is not sufficiently detailed enough continuously through the bill analysis. The chair has reviewed the bill and the bill analysis and finds that the provision complained of, relating to passports, is contained in the bill analysis and is not materially or substantially misleading. Accordingly, the point of order is respectfully overruled.
CSSB 14 - POINT OF ORDER

Representative Martinez Fischer raised a point of order against further consideration of CSSB 14 under Article III, Section 49-k of the Texas Constitution on the grounds that the bill reduces, rescinds, or repeals the Texas Mobility Fund.

The speaker overruled the point of order, speaking as follows:

Mr. Martinez Fischer raises a point of order under Article III, Section 49-k of the Texas Constitution. Specifically, Mr. Martinez Fischer argues that the bill reduces, rescinds, or repeals authority to collect funds under the Texas Mobility Fund. The chair has reviewed the argument, the question raised by Mr. Martinez Fischer was a provision that was constitutional whether any infirmity must be addressed in this bill or any bill if the bill is effective unless changed. It's precisely the type of constitutional points of order traditionally not ruled on. The chair will continue that tradition and the point of order is respectfully overruled.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

REPRESENTATIVE MARTINEZ FISCHER: The chair, in his ruling, failed to indicate whether they found this to be a substantive challenge or a procedural challenge to the constitution and I'd like to know which it is.

SPEAKER STRAUS: Mr. Martinez Fischer, the chair found that this deals with a substantive constitutional issue.

MARTINEZ FISCHER: Mr. Speaker, parliamentary inquiry.

SPEAKER: State your inquiry.

MARTINEZ FISCHER: Is the constitutional article that says bills must be read on three several days, is that procedural or substantive?

SPEAKER: That is a point of order that has traditionally been ruled on by the chair.

MARTINEZ FISCHER: As procedural or substantive?

SPEAKER: As a discussion of legislative procedure.

MARTINEZ FISCHER: And Mr. Speaker, further inquiry, is the constitutional provision saying that all bills must pass both houses of the legislature, is that procedural or substantive?

SPEAKER: Again, Mr. Martinez Fischer, that is a point of order that has been ruled on, on legislative procedure.

MARTINEZ FISCHER: Okay, and the constitutional provisions related to the two-subject rule, is that also procedural, or is it substantive?

SPEAKER: Mr. Martinez Fischer, in ruling on Article III, Section 49-k of the constitution, we found that that did not fall within classes of legislative procedures traditionally ruled on by the chair.
MARTINEZ FISCHER: With respect to the substantive ruling of this chair, there was not a substantive claim made in the point of order, in fact, the point of order was launched because the procedure by which a bill comes to the floor that repeals, rescinds, or reduces constitutionally dedicated monies—my argument is, procedurally, no bill can come to the floor that does that unless they comply with the constitution, which requires them to explain how they plan to reallocate the monies they deprive from the mobility fund. And so, procedurally, that is what my point is. I'm not arguing the substantive matter, as to whether or not the Article III, Section 49 even applies in this instance. I am saying—I am saying that procedurally, just like procedurally we read bills on three separate days, just like procedurally we pass bills out of the house and senate, this is also a procedure by which we bring bills to the floor that are in order and not in order. And my procedural argument is that the bill is not in order, because procedurally it deprives the mobility fund of its dedicated source of funding, and the only way, procedurally, that we can proceed is if we allocate monies to replenish what we take. I'm not arguing as to the substantive merits of that, I'm arguing that is a necessary step for a bill to be in order. So if the chair wants to rule that procedurally I am overruled, I will sit down. But my point of order is specific to this procedural component of the constitutional article and not the substantive interpretation.

SPEAKER: Mr. Martinez Fischer, we have reviewed and heard your arguments, we've looked for precedent, there is none. And the point of order is respectfully overruled and I'd be happy to take this exchange between me and you and have it entered into the journal.

MARTINEZ FISCHER: We can put it on the journal, we can put it on a billboard, but we're here today, and just because there isn't precedent, that's not a reason to overrule the point of order. And I will say that the reason why you may not find a precedent is that the creation of the mobility fund is relatively new and I think that only in two instances in our Texas Constitution do we place the procedural hurdle of protecting dedicated funds. One is for the mobility fund, and one is for the rail relocation fund. We have an obligation, as lawmakers, to not submit the full faith and credit of the State of Texas to bond holders when we take money that they are relying on to pay for construction bonds. And so I'm not arguing the substantive part of that, I am wanting the chair to make a ruling that, procedurally, you do not have to replenish money that you procedurally take out of the mobility fund, not the substantive interpretation of the fund itself. And so if the chair wants to put in its ruling we've reviewed the procedural argument and we find, procedurally, there's nothing there, then I will sit down.

SPEAKER: Mr. Martinez Fischer, the chair will revise its ruling to include the arguments you've made, thank you.

MARTINEZ FISCHER: So that will be, in fact, the chair's ruling? Will the chair please read that ruling to me?

SPEAKER: Point of order is respectfully overruled.

MARTINEZ FISCHER: On procedural grounds?
SPEAKER: The chair has listened respectfully to your arguments and respectfully overrules your point of order.

MARTINEZ FISCHER: If the chair is making its ruling on the substantive interpretation of Article III, Section 49, then the chair has not heard my argument. My argument is on the procedural hurdle that exists with respect to Article III, Section 49. And so, procedurally, once again, Mr. Speaker, if there is an overruling of the procedural point of order, I will stand by the chair’s ruling. But I need to hear that to be the chair’s ruling.

SPEAKER: Mr. Martinez Fischer, the chair overrules all grounds that you’ve raised. Thank you.

AMENDMENT NO. 9 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE ALONZO: Mr. Veasey, one of the reasons Mr. Eiland and myself brought up this amendment is to pay particular attention to part of our state which are 65 and over, and you pointed out—and it might seem easy to some people while anybody can vote—is that part of your argument? That nobody should be set aside, especially on this law, is that right?

REPRESENTATIVE VEASEY: That is exactly right and I think the point that everybody is missing is that if you were born in 1941, which is what this bill covers. When you were born, you were born into a time when it was legal to discriminate against African Americans and Hispanics, particularly here in this state. And you were routinely denied the right to vote if you were born during that time period and if you lived during that time period and those are the people we are trying to protect by making these amendments better. I do not want my grandmother who is 98 years old, who was born during a time of rampant discrimination. I do not want the people that know her at the school house at Como Elementary School when she goes to vote in Fort Worth, the people that know her, that have known her, those folks are now in their sixties and pushing 70-years-old and my grandmother used to baby-sit them and watch after them, they know who she is. And my grandmother does not have a current driver's license and luckily she usually votes by mail. But if it were an emergency and I needed to take her up to the school to vote, I would not want them to deny her the right to cast a ballot, particularly the people who have known her and know that she is not committing voter fraud. I do not want them to have the right to say no she cannot vote. That is absolutely un-American and ridiculous and discriminatory.

ALONZO: And you know talking about that, isn't it true the reason we set up the Voting Rights Act in the United States was because what part of the United States needed to be reminded and have another hammer to make sure people are allowed to vote. What part of the United States?

VEASEY: The south and Texas.

ALONZO: Right and we can argue for ages and time that it doesn't happen, but isn't it true after we did redistricting in 2003 the supreme court said there was discrimination here in Texas?

VEASEY: Now say that again, I'm sorry.
ALONZO: That there was discrimination here in Texas after the supreme court ruled on our redistricting in San Antonio.

VEASEY: Absolutely, rampant.

ALONZO: And the reason we want to do this amendment, the reason we are for this amendment, and we're going to vote no on the Bonnen amendment is because the elderly should be protected. The elderly, as pointed out, there is more of a chance that they're not going to renew their driver's license, is that right?

VEASEY: Absolutely, if you don't have to drive, if you're on a fixed income, why would you go and spend money to get your driver's license renewed? It may not be a problem in some areas but it surely is a lot—it surely would be a problem in many rural and urban areas, where people just don't have the same access to resources and the same access to cash as others do, particularly for those who are sick and shut-in and rely on social services.

AMENDMENT NO. 7 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE VEASEY: Members, I want to speak against the amendment, because obviously the prior two amendments that were sent up trying to protect old people, to preserve their right, for it to be easy for them to vote, and I think that’s all we’re asking, is just for a little flexibility on this. We’re getting absolutely none at all and I think that’s unfortunate because when the bill was laid out, I was under the impression that there wouldn’t be different amendments added that would make the bill even more adverse than it already is, and I think we’re setting up a bad precedent by voting for this.

REPRESENTATIVE BERMAN: Mr. Veasey, I’m one of those old people that you’re talking about. I’m 75, and I’ve got lots of friends who are 75, and they want to go to the polls and vote just like everybody else, and there are provisions in the bill for the disabled, if you can’t get to the polls, there are provisions to vote. I thought it was ridiculous, really, to set a limit of 70. You know, I don’t need any protection, and all my friends don’t need any protection. I think Mr. Bonnen has got a great amendment.

VEASEY: I think everybody’s circumstances are different. I think that’s what makes the legislative perspective unique. Some people may live in a rural area and it may take a long time to reach certain areas to go vote. Some people, you know, may have been born during a time where they don’t have access to certain documents to obtain driver’s licenses and things of that nature. You know, everybody has a different story, a different perspective, our state has not always been as urban as it is now, it has not always been as integrated as it is now.

BERMAN: Well, you’re absolutely right, but Ms. Harless has many, many points in the bill that will take care of everyone and any age group. And we don’t want to discriminate on age—you’re discriminating against me. I want to go to the polls and vote, I don’t need to be exempt.

VEASEY: Well, that’s different, Leo—you may not have been affected the same way, like my grandmother, my constituents that are African American. The laws that were passed back then may have not had the same adverse impact on you as a white male as they did on other people, and that’s what this is about today.

BERMAN: That’s true, but there are provisions in the bill that take care of that though.

2. In SECTION 9 of the bill, in added Section 63.001(h), Election Code (page 6, line 23), between "15.001(c)" and the underscored period, insert the following:

   or

   (B) offices of the Department of Public Safety are not open for at least two consecutive hours outside of the voter's working hours

AMENDMENT NO. 16 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE V. TAYLOR: Mr. Speaker and members, I rise in opposition to this amendment. This deals with people who already have jobs, and in order to have a job in this country, an individual must fill out an I-9 form. An I-9 form requires identification, so I'm not really sure where this is coming from because these people already had ID to get a job in the first place. I move to table this amendment.

REPRESENTATIVE RAYMOND: Repeat that, Mr. Taylor, because I didn't quite hear you, I apologize.

V. TAYLOR: Sure. For an individual, for a U.S. citizen—and there are, only U.S. citizens should be registered to vote in this state—to have a job, they must fill out an I-9 form for their employer. To fill out an I-9 form, they have to have some form of identification.
RAYMOND: Okay, so is there a scenario that you can envision, Mr. Taylor, where somebody went to work for you, let's say, 10 years ago, right, and they had to fill out the proper forms and show you the proper ID, etcetera, right? Ten years ago. Can you imagine that there would be an instance in this state of 25 million people where registered and eligible voters might, for some reason, 10 years later, might not have the ID required by this bill. Could you imagine that scenario?

V. TAYLOR: Yes.

RAYMOND: Okay, so, you can imagine what I'm trying to get to here which is, you're exactly right. If they work for Van Taylor, and they show up at the polling place, and they have a voter registration card, and they have something from Van Taylor, Inc. saying, you know, I did not provide them time to go get a new ID as required by this bill.

V. TAYLOR: There was a question there somewhere, I'm sure.

RAYMOND: Yes, I just said, you can imagine, then, if somebody worked for you, you hired them legally 10 years ago, some point since then they lost the ID, if this bill passes, this bill becomes law, they lost their ID, but Van Taylor, Inc. didn't give them time during the day to go get the ID that they needed. You could also imagine, in a state of 25 million people, that there could be instances like that.

V. TAYLOR: Well, in the example you just gave, there are opportunities for someone to get, you know, to get their driver's license either online, as many of us have done, or by mail.

RAYMOND: I'm not sure you can go get your, the—what you're asking for in this bill—that you could get it online.

V. TAYLOR: The original form of identification, which is what you would have to have for the I-9 form, since we're only talking about employed people who are U.S. citizens, you can—you have to show up in person to get your first driver's license, to get photo ID, to take your picture somehow, of course. Subsequently, after we've gotten your picture, you can renew up to a number of times online or by mail.

RAYMOND: So if you've had your driver's license for six years—stop the clock, please.

V. TAYLOR: There's extensive training for poll workers and election judges on how to handle it when somebody doesn't have identification. We already have—we have a provisional ballot system, but the supposition that you're making, that people may show up to the polls without ID—which could happen, and this bill envisions that and gives the voter the opportunity to take care of that, but your original premise that people who are employed in this state don't have photo ID doesn't hold up when you look at the federal requirement for the I-9 form.
RAYMOND: Well, it does, as you acknowledged a minute ago, that if somebody went to work for you 10 years ago, and you hired them legally, that 10 years later they might not have the ID that they had 10 years ago, they might have lost it. Would you—you acknowledged that earlier, would you acknowledge that now?

V. TAYLOR: I do.

RAYMOND: Finally, let me ask this, Mr. Taylor, you know what those of us who are opposed to this legislation are trying to do, we're trying to protect voter rights. You recognize that, right?

V. TAYLOR: Absolutely, as are the proponents of this bill. We seek to protect voting rights by protecting the 15th Amendment by making sure every vote counts. That's what this bill is ultimately about and we seek to do in our support of voter ID.

RAYMOND: Let me ask you a question, do you believe the Voting Rights Act is a good law?

V. TAYLOR: I believe the Voting Rights Act is a great thing to protect Americans' right to vote. All Americans, regardless of—

RAYMOND: So you believe the Voting Rights Act is still necessary?

V. TAYLOR: Yes.

RAYMOND: Is that because you believe discrimination still exists?

V. TAYLOR: I think the Voting Rights Act—there are many aspects of it to protect our ability to vote, protect the 15th Amendment—

RAYMOND: Protecting discrimination in the voting place though, if you believe it's a good law, if you believe discrimination in the voting place still exists?

V. TAYLOR: I'm not sure where you're going with this, chairman.

RAYMOND: No, no, I'm not going anywhere, it's very simple, this is about protecting voting rights and I asked you if you believed the Voting Rights Act was a good law and you said yes, right?

V. TAYLOR: This bill that we're debating right here on the floor is about voter identification at the polling stations when people vote in the State of Texas.

RAYMOND: And any time you deal with a law that has to do with voting, you have to take into consideration the rights of people to vote. Any time you deal with a law as comprehensive and big as this—as comprehensive and big as this—you have to take into account people's voting rights. You would agree with that, right?

V. TAYLOR: I think that it is important to remember that this bill is about making sure that the right people show up on election day and vote—

RAYMOND: That the right people show up on election day? Who are the right people?
V. TAYLOR: The people who are registered to vote and can demonstrate that they are who they say they are through voter—through having proper voter identification.

RAYMOND: Again, and I'll let you go after this, but I just want to establish—you and I have served on committee together, it's been great getting to know you. You acknowledge that we still need the Voting Rights Act because the Voting Rights Act prevents discrimination in the polling place, and if you still think we need it, presumably, you believe there's still problems.

V. TAYLOR: Mr. Chairman, as you well know, this type of legislation, this voter identification has been approved under the Voter Rights Act in other states. I mean, this has already been litigated by other states. But the point of your amendment, coming back to what I think you wanted to talk about here today, which is the ability of people who have jobs who somehow might not have identification—those people, in this country, who have jobs, have to fill out an I-9 form, and that requires identification.

RAYMOND: And along those lines, according to the workforce commission, it says, in order to get an I-9 you have to have a voter registration card and a social security account number to get an I-9, which means those are the two things you need to get a photo ID.

V. TAYLOR: That is—those are two possible accommodations for List A, excuse me, List B or List C.

RAYMOND: That's what you need, so to get an I-9 you need a voter registration card, a social security card, so would you agree, then, that if somebody has a voter registration card, a social security card, they ought to be able to vote, too? If they're registered to vote, obviously.

V. TAYLOR: Clearly.

RAYMOND: You do? Then I can offer that amendment. You want to tell Ms. Harless back there—

V. TAYLOR: No. I still think—look, we—it is important that we have a voter registration—a voter identification requirement in this state to make sure that when people show up to vote, they are who they say they are. And—

RAYMOND: Do you think that this will—do you think it is sufficient, as it is under law, that in order to get an I-9 card, which you hang this whole thing on, that all you need is a voter registration card and a social security number? Do you think that's sufficient to get an I-9 card? That's what the law is, do you agree with the law or do you disagree with it?

V. TAYLOR: Mr. Chairman, this is a narrowly defined bill that is designed to make sure that the people who show up to vote are, in fact, who they say they are. The fact is, it is too simple to steal a voter identification card and use that for in-person ballot fraud, I have witnessed it with my own eyes—we talked about this on Monday—in Representative Anchia's district, and I watched somebody walk in and say somebody took my voter registration card, I'm here to vote, and they had been denied the right to vote.

Amendment No. 26

Representative V. Gonzales offered the following amendment to CSSB 14:

Amend CSSB 14 as follows:

(1) In the recital to SECTION 15 of the bill (page 10, line 26), strike "Subsection (b-1)" and substitute "Subsections (b-1) and (f)".

(2) In SECTION 15 of the bill, add the following after added Section 63.011(b-1), Election Code (page 11, between lines 18 and 19):

(f) In addition to the affidavit required by this section, a person who casts a provisional ballot under this section and is described by Section 65.054(b)(2)(B) may execute an affidavit under that section at the polling place. Forms for affidavits under Section 65.054(b)(2)(B) must be available at each polling place.
(3) In SECTION 18 of the bill, in added Section 65.0541(a)(2), Election Code (page 13, line 4), between "presence of" and "the voter registrar", insert "an election officer at the polling place or".

AMENDMENT NO. 26 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE HARLESS: I wanted to clarify what our conversation was—you talked about having these affidavits at the polling place that they have to sign if they are casting a provisional ballot. You're not in any way trying to cut out the photo ID requirements, are you?

REPRESENTATIVE V. GONZALES: Not with this particular amendment. This amendment would simply say, your bill already includes the requirement that an affidavit be signed if they have to fill out a provisional ballot. All this would say is, let's make it available to them at the polling places, so that they don't have to be traveling to another location to fill out an affidavit.

HARLESS: Right, so they show up at a polling place, and they don't have one of the subscribed forms of identification, and they fill out a provisional ballot and have to sign an affidavit. You're saying that when they're at that polling place, if they want to cast the provisional ballot that requires affidavits signed, that that polling place should have those affidavits there on the location site.

V. GONZALES: That's correct.

Amendment No. 34

Representative Raymond offered the following amendment to CSSB 14:

Amend CSSB 14 as follows:

(1) On page 15, line 11, insert the following new section and renumber the subsection appropriately:

SECTION 25. This Act is legally unenforceable if it does not comply with Section 5, Section 203, and Section (4)(f)(4) of the Voting Rights Act.

AMENDMENT NO. 34 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE HARLESS: Mr. Speaker, members, the Voting Rights Act either does or does not apply to various sections of this bill. This is for the supreme court to determine and not the Texas Legislature. I move to table.

REPRESENTATIVE RAYMOND: Ms. Harless, do you believe the Voting Rights Act is a good law?

HARLESS: I do.

RAYMOND: So you believe there is still discrimination in the voting place?

HARLESS: I'm sorry?

RAYMOND: So you believe there is still discrimination in the voting place?

HARLESS: No, I do not think there is.

RAYMOND: Then why do you think the Voting Rights Act is a good law?

HARLESS: I think at the time, when it was passed, it was very effective. Texas is a Section 5 state, it's going to have to go for pre-clearance either before the Department of Justice or the three federal judges in the District of Columbia. They will decide if we have met the standards of the Voting Rights Act. This is not the venue for us to decide. We've got the lines that they have drawn in the cases we have already seen. We know that—we know the standards they've set, we've complied with that in our bill. This is not the venue to have this—

RAYMOND: Are you telling me we don't need the Voting Rights Act anymore?

HARLESS: You're putting words into my mouth.

RAYMOND: I'm asking. Do you believe we still need the Voting Rights Act?

HARLESS: I don't think this is the place to debate that.

RAYMOND: Yes ma'am, it is entirely the place to debate that. Would you agree this is a major piece of legislation dealing with voting in the State of Texas?

HARLESS: I do.

RAYMOND: And you do not believe that the Voting Rights Act should be discussed in this context?
HARLESS: We have discussed it.
RAYMOND: Okay, then let's continue to discuss it for a minute. Do you believe the Voting Rights Act is still necessary?
HARLESS: I believe we're still under the regulation of the Voting Rights Act.
RAYMOND: I'm asking you, because you are the author of this very important bill, and I think this is very important for people to understand your intent. Do you believe the Voting Rights Act is still necessary?
HARLESS: As I've said before, this is a federal issue to be decided by the federal courts. This isn't for us and the Texas Legislature to discuss right now.
RAYMOND: Ma'am, you are dealing with legislation here—you are proposing a bill that would affect every single voter in the State of Texas, including minorities. You would agree with that, right?
HARLESS: Say that one more time. It's hard to hear.
RAYMOND: You are presenting a bill that would affect the voting rights of every voter in the State of Texas, including minorities, would you agree with that?
HARLESS: I do not agree with that.
RAYMOND: Really, your bill doesn't apply to minorities?
HARLESS: I think we increase access to the polls by putting some checks and balances—that voters actually show ID, that they are who they are when they show up to vote in person.
RAYMOND: I have a very simple question. Does your bill apply to minorities in the State of Texas?
HARLESS: My bill applies to everyone equally across the state.
RAYMOND: Including minorities, is that right?
HARLESS: Everyone.
RAYMOND: Including minorities?
HARLESS: All Texans.
RAYMOND: Including minorities?
HARLESS: All Texans.
RAYMOND: Including minorities?
HARLESS: All Texans.
RAYMOND: You won't even acknowledge whether or not your bill affects—
HARLESS: I said it applies to all Texans.
RAYMOND: Including minorities, right?
HARLESS: All Texans. Every voter in the State of Texas.
RAYMOND: Minorities are Texans, right?
HARLESS: Do you want to go back and forth all day on this? I've answered your question.

RAYMOND: With all due respect, I feel like you are being flippant about something that's very important to millions of Texans.

HARLESS: I absolutely don't mean to be flippant. If I'm coming across that way I apologize.

RAYMOND: It's a very simple question.

HARLESS: And I gave you a very simple answer. It applies to all Texans.

RAYMOND: I'll ask you one more time. Does your bill apply to minorities in the State of Texas?

REPRESENTATIVE VEASEY: Mr. Raymond, why don't you think Representative Harless would answer your questions directly? It was a very important question dealing with the Voting Rights Act. We know that we are a Section 5 state. I hope that she knows we're a Section 5 state if she's carrying this bill, and could you maybe elaborate on why she did not want to answer your question directly?

RAYMOND: You know, it's hard to read someone else's mind. But, I will tell you that in 2006, I'm not sure every member in here knows this, but in 2006 a man named George W. Bush signed into law the extension of the Voting Rights Act for 25 years and he said, "Although we've come a long way, there's still a ways to go." And for the author of this bill not to acknowledge what a president from this state was willing to acknowledge a mere five years ago, and that is, the Voting Rights Act is still necessary. And that her bill would in fact affect millions of Texans who are minorities and who are protected by Section 2 of the Voting Rights Act is troubling. I mean I don't know what else to tell you, but I think that it should certainly give people pause to think about what's going on here.

VEASEY: If you're the author of a bill like this that's going to drastically change election law in your state, don't you think you should have a good understanding of the Voting Rights Act and the history of the Act and why it was passed before you embark on a piece of legislation that could have the type of consequences that I believe this piece of legislation will have?

RAYMOND: Well, I would expect that in the year 2011, but you just heard the exchange. It was surprising and troubling to me that the author of this bill was not willing to acknowledge the importance of the Voting Rights Act and the fact that her bill would affect millions of Texans who are protected by it.

VEASEY: You have a good amendment and because of all the good amendments that have been turned down tonight, we can see exactly where this bill is headed. Thank you, Representative Raymond.

RAYMOND: Thank you.

REPRESENTATIVE BERMAN: Richard, you're a good guy, and Richard, are you a minority?

RAYMOND: I am.
BERMAN: Is Mr. Veasey a minority?
RAYMOND: Yes, sir.
BERMAN: Are you both Texans?
RAYMOND: Yes, sir, we are.
BERMAN: Ms. Harless answered the question then. She said "all Texans."
RAYMOND: You know, Leo, and I'm glad you call me Richard, because I like for us to talk to each other in the—
BERMAN: Because I like you.
RAYMOND: You were listening to it, Leo, and you've been around 75 years, as you've just mentioned. She specifically would not answer, she specifically would not say, when I asked a simple question, "Will this affect minorities? Will your bill include minorities?" In other words, I'm a minority, is this going to apply to me? I'm going to need a voter ID to go vote, right?
BERMAN: Yes, but you're a Texan.
RAYMOND: No, but listen to it, Leo. You listen to us, you listen to us. I said well tell me, does this affect minorities? "It affects all Texans." Well, just if it would affect minorities—she wouldn't say it.
BERMAN: I think you hit her too hard, really.
RAYMOND: She's not a shrinking violet, she's a tough lady.
BERMAN: But she said "all Texans," and all Texans include every minority in Texas. Of course they do.
RAYMOND: Let me ask you, Leo. Do you believe this bill applies to minorities in the State of Texas?
BERMAN: Yes, I do.
RAYMOND: You see, you were willing to answer it.
BERMAN: But she didn't have to, she said "all Texans."

Amendment No. 35

Representative Raymond offered the following amendment to CSSB 14:

Amend CSSB 14 (house committee report) in SECTION 5 of the bill, in added Section 31.012, Election Code (page 3, between lines 25 and 26), by inserting the following new Subsection (d) and relettering the subsequent subsections of added Section 31.012, Election Code, accordingly:

(d) Sections 203 and 14(f)(4) of the Voting Rights Act apply to this section.

AMENDMENT NO. 35 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE RAYMOND: Very simply, I guess I want to ask you, do you believe that this bill should comply with the Voting Rights Act?

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: I believe that we need to follow the law and make sure that we comply with every constitutional requirement that is imposed on us as a body. Now, what you're—this is a specific section and portion of the Voting Rights Act. I don't know if those sections apply to this, that will be up to the—that will be up to, ultimately, the supreme court to determine, and that's who we need to let determine. I don't think we need to by trying to second-guess what they do mean and don't mean and whether all of these provisions apply.

RAYMOND: Well, let me ask, because I see a troubling pattern here—

PHILLIPS: I can't hear you—

RAYMOND: Let me ask, because I see a troubling pattern, simple question: Do you believe that the Voting Rights Act is a good law?
PHILLIPS: That is not a question before us. There are issues of whether all of the Voting Rights Act are necessary at this time. There are parts of it that have been important to transform elections in this nation.

RAYMOND: So you believe, so you don't believe the Voting Rights Act is necessary?

PHILLIPS: I'm not going to get into—

RAYMOND: This is important—we're—

PHILLIPS: Let me answer.

RAYMOND: Let me ask my question, and then you can answer.

PHILLIPS: You asked a question, then you answered a question, then you asked a question again—

RAYMOND: No, no, I'll ask—

PHILLIPS: —but you won't let me answer.

RAYMOND: Let me—because I didn't ask it clearly I think. Do you believe—do you believe—Mr. Phillips—

PHILLIPS: Go ahead, I'm waiting for your question.

RAYMOND: Let me ask this, you recognize that Texas is a protected—do you know or do you recognize that Texas is a protected state under the Voting Rights Act? Just yes or no.

PHILLIPS: Yes, I do. The federal government, under George Bush, they voted to extend the Voting Rights Act for 25 years; yes, they did.

RAYMOND: Okay, so you recognize that we're covered by that then?

PHILLIPS: And that's the whole point, we're covered by that and we don't need to say—you're trying to impose something on this bill from a federal perspective.
We either are or we aren't.

RAYMOND: Exactly, and all I'm saying with this amendment—all I'm saying with this amendment—and this is why I'm baffled why you would move to table it, is that if we don't comply with the Voting Rights Act, it should not become law. Is it your position that if it does not comply with the Voting Rights Act it should still become law?

PHILLIPS: You're bringing sections in and saying this has to apply to every provision, and that's not the—

RAYMOND: No, no, no, no—

PHILLIPS: That's not what we need to do, we need to leave that for the federal government. I mean, for the courts to decide whether we comply. Because the lawyers have worked through this to craft this, and we do not want to do anything that's going to viol—so that's what we're going to do.

RAYMOND: This, very specifically, what you just said is not accurate, Larry.
This amendment very specifically applies to one section of the bill.
PHILLIPS: Right.

RAYMOND: The voter identification education section. That's all. If you look at the amendment.

PHILLIPS: You're asking to include, and say this section of federal law applies to what we're doing. That's part of the—I don't know—I mean, from my perspective, I don't know that we need to be here saying, well, gosh, we want everything to apply to everything we do. If it's covered by it, it's covered by it, Mr. Raymond. We don't need to include it. They'll determine that.

RAYMOND: Surely—I want to make sure I'm hearing you right—surely you would want us to comply with federal voting rights?

PHILLIPS: Mr. Raymond, that's exactly the point we've been making.

RAYMOND: You do want us to comply with the—so, I'm clear, you do want this—you do, you do want this—

PHILLIPS: No, we want to comply with federal law. And that's exactly the intent and purpose of what we're doing here today in trying to comply with federal law. That's why we're trying to keep this bill simple, and the whole procedure simple, instead of adding stuff to it that may trigger a section that does or does not apply. I don't see the problem.

RAYMOND: Well, you—again, are you saying that SB 14, the section that I—the voter identification education section—do you want it to comply with the federal voting rights laws?

PHILLIPS: I want this to comply with federal laws, and if the voting rights laws that are in effect apply to this and they're constitutional, the supreme court will uphold it, and if they don't, they won't.

RAYMOND: Well, then all my amendments say—

PHILLIPS: Your amendment says this has to apply here, and that's something we're saying we're not going to start doing. We could go through and say we want the entire constitution of the United States to apply to this law. It either does, or it doesn't. We don't need to do that as a state. The federal government passes the laws that they do, and we're either going to follow those laws or not. We either have to or we don't, and that's part of the debate that is going on across this nation of what we do and we do not want to—we don't want to incorporate—we're trying to stop federal laws that we don't agree with—

RAYMOND: So, you believe that—so I'm clear—you believe that this section of the bill, which deals with language, right, voter identification education, and the words language are used in that section of the bill, you believe that they may not need to comply with the Voting Rights Act, is that correct?

PHILLIPS: Either they—either do or they don't.

RAYMOND: And if they don't, it should not—it should not—

PHILLIPS: No, then you're starting to put a requirement or a hurdle that may or may not need to be there.
RAYMOND: Larry, how could you honestly look at me and say we're talking about—let me finish my question—how could you honestly look at me and say we have a major piece of legislation here and the section of the bill that deals with voter identification education and uses the words language, because, obviously in the State of Texas, there are people like my grandmother who didn't speak English, but who was a United States citizen her whole life, that that would not be covered and should not be covered by the Voting Rights Act? How can you honestly say that, Larry?

Again members, it is frustrating in the year 2011, to stand up here and be debating members of this legislature who do not want—who appear to me—to not want the Voting Rights Act to apply to this bill. It is disheartening, it is wrong, and I think in the end you will not prevail. We shall overcome.
