Amend CSSB 14 (house committee printing) by adding the following appropriately numbered SECTION to the bill and renumbering the remaining SECTIONS of the bill accordingly:

SECTION ___. Every provision in this Act and every application of the provisions in this Act are severable from each other. If any application of any provision in this Act to any person or group of persons or circumstances is found by a court to be invalid, the remainder of this Act and the application of the Act's provisions to all other persons and circumstances may not be affected. All constitutionally valid applications of this Act shall be severed from any applications that a court finds to be invalid, leaving the valid applications in force, because it is the legislature's intent and priority that the valid applications be allowed to stand alone. Even if a reviewing court finds a provision of this Act invalid in a large or substantial fraction of relevant cases, the remaining valid applications shall be severed and allowed to remain in force.

AMENDMENT NO. 50 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE RAYMOND: Mr. Phillips, you know that the State of Texas, in the last year, it was reported that we had an additional around half a million, or 428,000 more people, fell into poverty in the State of Texas, are you aware of that?

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: We had a population that has continued to grow. Yes, we have.

RAYMOND: But last year it was reported, official figures reported that over 400,000 more people in the State of Texas fell under the poverty level.

PHILLIPS: We have a much larger state and much more populous state. That's correct.

RAYMOND: Right, so we've got over four million people that I would call poor. I mean this would be someone who earns, if you're an individual, someone who earned $10,800 year. If you're a family of two, it'd be $14,000 a year. Families of three, $18,000 a year.

PHILLIPS: Mr. Raymond, we've clearly—clearly in the bill, it affords those who can't afford a voter ID card. I think we're getting far afield from this legislation—

RAYMOND: Well, here's what concerns me, and I hope would concern you. Minorities in the State of Texas outnumber Anglos about three to one in terms of those who fall under the poverty level, all right? So what I am seeking to do here is to help anyone who is poor, who would have a hardship being able to drive. As I said, I grew up in Benavides, 26 miles from the closest office. And there are a lot of people in Benavides, where I grew up, who are poorer than poor. There are a lot of people who are from San Isidro, where my grandparents were, 33 miles away from the closest DPS office. There are a lot of people out there who were poorer than poor, who are United States citizens, who are qualified and registered voters, but if this law were to pass, would have to go far away. Now, I know you're not poor, but surely you recognize that that can be a hardship on people? That, you know, when you had the poll tax and you had to pay a dollar or two dollars, people said, "Oh, a dollar, two dollars to be able to vote, that's not that much." In this case, you're saying with your bill, that you're supporting here, that if it costs you $10 or $15 or $20 to travel to be able to get what you need to get to allow you to vote, well then suck it up. You're going to have to do it, if you want to vote.

PHILLIPS: Mr. Raymond, for a long time people make decisions, they plan ahead and I don't think this is—

RAYMOND: They plan ahead?
PHILLIPS: They plan ahead.
RAYMOND: They plan ahead to be poor?

PHILLIPS: No, they plan ahead when they need to register to vote and run into town. You’re talking about traveling far when they’re going to get services and so what you’re doing is you’re trying to create a certain class and I respectfully disagree that that’s necessary here. You’re talking about people traveling far and not being able to get there.

RAYMOND: Well, let me just ask you—you really believe that there will not be people in the State of Texas, because they are poor, who will not be able to afford to get what you’re asking them to get to be able to vote?

PHILLIPS: And we’ve had some people here, from our own body, that testify about how important it is for the security and confidence in elections. And they will go and they proudly will obtain the right to vote.

RAYMOND: Would you just answer the question honestly, Larry?

PHILLIPS: No, I don’t think so.

RAYMOND: You really believe, of the four million poor people in the State of Texas, two-thirds who are—nearly three-fourths, of which are minority. And that’s why I believe this is aimed at minorities. You really believe that many of those people—you think they’re all going to be able to vote?

PHILLIPS: No, I just think you’re just raising an issue and I think it’s a red herring. I think it’s clear. The polls in this state show that minorities by a majority—

AMENDMENT NO. 55 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE LOZANO: Representative Veasey, are you familiar with the supreme court decision that upheld the Indiana voter ID law?

REPRESENTATIVE VEASEY: I am familiar with it, yes.

LOZANO: And, do you recall that the justices, the 6-3 decision, the six in favor of upholding, didn’t they make statements to that effect that if it was proven to disproportionately impact one racial or ethnic group, that then this issue should be revisited?

VEASEY: Absolutely, and that is exactly what this amendment addresses. It says that if there’s discrimination that takes place, and we know that it would be discrimination if most of the people that were denied the right to vote were black and Hispanic, because Ms. Harless had said that that is not going to happen. That, in fact, people will have confidence in what is taking place during election process and that confidence will actually bolster turnout, so there’s nothing to fear by this amendment.

LOZANO: Yes, okay, thank you.

VEASEY: So, members, I give you a chance to come and stand with me, just in case real discrimination takes place, which, I think, probably will. But here’s your chance to prove, once and for all, that you will come and stand with me. I move passage.

REPRESENTATIVE HARLESS: Members, I’m not a big fan of talk radio. I don’t listen to it, and I don’t believe everything they say, but I move to table.

LOZANO: Representative Harless, are you familiar with the supreme court decision in which the United States Supreme Court upheld the Indiana voter ID law?

HARLESS: Yes.

LOZANO: And are you familiar that was a 6-3 decision, six in favor of opposing the law?

HARLESS: Yes.

LOZANO: Are you familiar with the opinions issued—the majority opinion?

HARLESS: The what?

LOZANO: Are you familiar with the majority opinion that justices issued in the supreme court decision?

HARLESS: Yes.

LOZANO: Do you recall anywhere in there where the majority opinion said that even though upholding the integrity of the ballot was paramount, that if the law showed to be disproportionately impacting a minority group, then the issues should be revisited?

HARLESS: Yes.

TX_00002999

JA_002147
LOZANO: So wouldn't this amendment actually be an extension of what the majority of that supreme court held in that ruling?

HARLESS: In the Marion v.—Crawford v. Marion County Election Board, the court ruled the requirement to produce photo ID imposes only a limited burden on the voter and justifies by the state's interest in restoring confidence in elections and deterring fraud.

VEASEY: Members, especially my friends on the other side of the aisle that are republican, I ask you to please join me in defeating Ms. Harless' motion to table and support this amendment. This is a very easy amendment. All it says is that if people have really been discriminated against that you will come and stand with me and that you will come and join me. That is the argument that is made over and over on the republican talk radio shows—on WBAP, that's what republican friends say—that if you can prove real discrimination, I will come and stand with you. Now, this amendment says that if the secretary of state determines that most of the people are denied the right to vote are black and Hispanic, that the law will no longer exist. Ms. Harless has said, over and over that that will not happen. That, in fact, more people will go out to vote, because they will have confidence in the voting process. So, why not accept this amendment, so we can move along, and we can all feel good that we stood up against discrimination.

LOZANO: Mr. Veasey, I understand the significance of this amendment, and I really hope everyone's listening, because this amendment could potentially save this bill from adverse actions from the United States Supreme Court. We should not, and I think you would agree, be sending out bills that are probably going to get overturned by the United States Supreme Court. Based on their ruling, this behooves us—it would behoove us to support this amendment. Based on the six justices in favor of the voter ID law in Indiana saying exactly what your amendment says, I think it would be in our best interest, in the house of representatives, to support this amendment. I strongly urge everyone to vote against tabling this amendment.

VEASEY: I think that this is the amendment that definitely follows the supreme court decision, and I also believe that this is the amendment that makes you feel good about not committing discrimination against your neighbor. Taking an overseas mission, or fellowshipping with the church across town once a year, and passing this bill is not the way to feel good. The way to feel good is to stand up for civil rights when you have the opportunity to. I move to defeat Ms. Harless' amendment—please vote no on the motion to table.

REPRESENTATIVE ALISEDA: Members, Mr. Speaker, it is such an honor to be standing here representing my district as a state representative and supporting Representative Harless and this voter ID bill. As I stated earlier today, I am a Mexican immigrant. I came to this country at the age of four and became a United States citizen at the age of 17. I want to show you what they use in Mexico to vote. This is a Mexican, federally issued, biometric ID card. It has on the front, a picture, on the back, a magnetic strip containing additional information, and a fingerprint. I'm a proud American now, and using an ID to vote just makes common sense, and we need it here and need it now. We need an ID in this country to do anything in today's society—to cash a check, to open a bank account, to do something as simple as rent a movie. Americans expect it, Americans want it. They want it because they want to believe their voting system is at least as safe as renting a movie at Blockbuster.

Do I believe that there are some Americans who do not vote because they feel it is useless because of fraud? Yes. How do I know that? Because they have told me so. I served this country for five years as a United States naval officer—my country. I did not do that so some dead person could vote, or so that Mickey Mouse registered by ACORN could vote. I served my home county, Bee County, as county attorney for eight years. In 1990, as a young democrat county attorney, I had investigated and I had prosecuted voter fraud cases. I actually had convictions. I did not do that just to bring the perpetrators to justice. I did it because my citizens needed to believe they had a clean and fair election system and that someone was fighting for that. That is exactly why I strongly support this bill.

My district is comprised of seven counties south of San Antonio, west of Corpus Christi. According to 2008 statistics, one county in my district, Goliad County, had more people registered to vote than persons eligible to vote. Under current laws, the opportunity for fraud is there. In 2008, a high-water mark for voter registration, Texas had an overall registration rate of 76 percent of eligible voters. In McMullen County, another one of my counties, in 2008, we had a voter registration percent of 97.9, 21.4 percent above the state average. The opportunity for fraud was probably there. In Jim Wells County—some of you may have heard of Jim Wells County, that's the home of the infamous "Box 13." In 2008, they had an eligible voter registration of 90.44 percent, or 14 percent above the state average. The opportunity for fraud was probably there. In 2004, in Bee County, we had a woman cast a ballot as if she was her deceased mother. In 2007, the Texas State Auditors Office found that Texas had 49,049 registered voters who may have been ineligible to vote. Of those, there were 23,500 voters on the rolls who were probably deceased. Would voter ID probably have stopped them if they had tried to vote? I think so. There were also 2,359 voters identified as having duplicate records. I believe voter ID would have helped there also. In the voter ID committee, I heard testimony from election officials that in-person voter fraud had probably occurred and that they had witnessed it. They testified that they had voters show up with multiple ID cards. Do I believe voter fraud has occurred? Yes. I believe that the majority of my constituents in my district, democrats, independents, and republicans want this, and I intend to vote for it and I ask that you do, also.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

Representative Peña moved to print remarks by Representative Aliseda.

The motion prevailed.

REPRESENTATIVE VEASEY: Members, I'm not going to talk long. We've had a very, very long evening. Of course, you know I'm in opposition of this bill, it discriminates and I think it will disenfranchise. And I was just kind of thinking about the history of the Texas House of Representatives and what has changed over the last 100 years or so. Obviously, the chamber has changed. It wasn't too long ago that there were no African Americans or no Hispanics at all that served in this body and it was largely because of the discrimination that took place at the polling place. And there was time when this body upheld certain segregationist policies that dealt with integrated schools and interracial marriage and other things like that, that obviously we would find despicable today. But, what hasn't changed, even though the parties have changed, is that when it comes time to doing the right thing on decisions that largely involve race, that conservatives just cannot do the right thing. It's too hard. People didn't do the right thing in regards to school desegregation, people just stuck with their communities. People didn't want to go against, people thought they weren't going to be able to come back here when it dealt with segregation, when it dealt with whether our colleges and universities were going to be integrated. People didn't do the right thing. When it came time to take a stance on slavery, people couldn't do the right thing. But I guarantee you, the people that served here in the 1950s and 60s, they'll look back and say, "You know what? That was wrong. When I was in the Texas Legislature, I should have done something. I should have stood up. I thought school segregation was right then. I thought that segregated water fountains were right then. I should have stood up and done the right thing." And I can guarantee you, after this bill passes, and we see who is discriminated against and we see who suffers because of the strict requirements in this bill, that just like the people who served here in the 1950s, just like the people who served here in the in 1930s and the people who served here during reconstruction and before. They had to look back in shame. They didn't have a good story to tell their kids and their grandkids about how they dealt with the issue of race. We are making the same mistake.

REPRESENTATIVE BURNAM: Representative Veasey, you and I were raised on the west side of Fort Worth, is that correct?

VEASEY: That is correct.

BURNAM: And while you're younger than I, we have very similar experiences in and around the Lake Como community neighborhood and what they have endured over the years. A couple of weeks ago, when we had the immigrant rights rally here, I was speaking in the crowd and I made mention to the fact of legislators of the 50s and 60s in Jim Crow times. And I said, this session was shaping up to be the most overtly racist session that I have witnessed in 25 or 30 years. Do you think what we have seen and heard today bears up on my comment?

VEASEY: I think that what is being done here today is no different from the things that were done here in the 50s, no different from the things that were done here previous to that. The things that were done here during reconstruction or before. I think it's horrible, I think it discriminates against people. I think that we'll look back in shame and I think we'll all look back and say, that's wrong. Because, people always do that. There is not a person here that will say what happened in the 50s and what happened in the 60s was the right thing. Back then everybody thought it was the right thing. But nobody would say it's the right thing, today. Back then it was very socially acceptable, it was the right thing to do. As a matter of fact, if you weren't against school desegregation back in the 1950s, then you were seen as an oddity in your community. You probably weren't invited to come back to the Lions Club.

BURNAM: Mr. Veasey, you know I am extremely proud to have your grandmother and your mother as my constituents, and I bet you also know that they are extremely proud of you today.

VEASEY: Thank you very much and I think it's time to close. I want to thank my colleagues for joining me. But, the people that will lose out, because of this bill, will mainly be Hispanics and blacks, poor, elderly, rural, and it's a shame that we are traveling back in history instead of moving forward and winning the future.

REPRESENTATIVE MARTINEZ: The foundation has been laid and the bricks and the mortar to start the building of wall has commenced. And although this is not a wall for a building, this is a wall built as yet another barrier, another obstacle, for minorities. This voter ID bill, or should I say, this voter restriction bill, voter suppression bill, is one of the toughest in the country. A bill that oppresses minorities and their right to vote. A bill written and fortified on pure speculation. For those members that have come up here and have talked about seeing voter fraud, why didn't you do anything about it? Pure speculation, members. Many of you who are in this chamber have never had the experience of not being served at a restaurant, or having to pick up the order at the back door, or being treated differently because of your race or the color of your skin. I can still remember growing up and hearing my grandparents and my parents saying they couldn't go to the south side of town after 10 o'clock because of their race. I can remember my grandfather saying that he couldn't pick up his order in a restaurant or be seated because he was Hispanic, because he was Mexican American. And all this is, and all this happened because of their race. This bill, members, is a personal attack on minorities. This bill undermines every civil rights movement, the work of every civil rights leader, and most of all undermines every minority in this state. Some members in this chamber can go back and check off your political agenda. You've done what you've had to do, you're going to vote on this bill. But to some of us, it is personal. This is our voice, this is the voice of the minorities I represent in my district, the voice of minorities across the State of Texas. And we are taking a stand against the continuous oppression and persecution that this bill brings. For the minority members in this house, I ask you to stand with me today. To members who care about the minorities you represent, I ask you to stand with me today, so we can together against the continued oppression, persecution, and voter suppression in this state.

REPRESENTATIVE REYNOLDS: Are you familiar with Proverbs 31:8-9?

MARTINEZ: I would like for you to please refresh my memory on that, Representative Reynolds.

REYNOLDS: Well, I would say that Proverbs 31:8-9 simply says, "Speak out for the one who cannot speak, for the rights of those who are doomed. Speak out, judge fairly, and defend the right of oppressed and needy people." Would you say that that scripture pretty much summarizes the sentiments of the statement that you made in opposition of this, SB 14?

MARTINEZ: Absolutely representative, and I'm on a roll if you give it to me, I'll recite it right now.

REPRESENTATIVE Y. DAVIS: Thank you, Ms. Harless, I just want to get on the record, because there had been some discussion with regard to the cost of the bill and funding for the bill. So, I'd like to ask you, if you could explain to me, who's going to pay for this legislation we're passing? What is your understanding—who will pay for it?

REPRESENTATIVE HARLESS: My understanding is that there is a $2,024,000 fiscal note on it. We have money in the general appropriations bill, and we have a contingency rider. There's HAVA funds available if we request them and we are approved.

Y. DAVIS: Is it your explanation that there are actually two riders then?

HARLESS: One—

Y. DAVIS: Okay, so you mentioned two, so it's just the one contingency rider that deals with HAVA funds, is that correct?

HARLESS: I don't remember mentioning two—there's only one rider.

Y. DAVIS: I'm sorry—

HARLESS: I don't remember mentioning two. There's only—there always has been—and there's only one rider.

Y. DAVIS: Okay, and so if those HAVA funds, and those HAVA funds represent federal funding from the Obama administration, is that correct?
Y. DAVIS: Okay, if those HAVA funds are not funded at the 2.024 level or if they are not funded at all, is there money for implementation of this bill, to your knowledge?

HARLESS: Yes.

Y. DAVIS: Okay, and could you explain what that funding source would be?

HARLESS: I think we have general appropriations funds set aside for the funding of this bill to educate voters.

Y. DAVIS: Okay, and is that a different rider than the one we just talked about?

HARLESS: In the appropriations bill that was laid out in January or February on page I-92, there is $39 million of HAVA funds and underneath the secretary of state and for this coming year and $9 million for the next year.

Y. DAVIS: So, it is your representation that we don’t have to have the funds associated with this contingency law, but that they will be using funds that have already been received and will be used for a new program?

HARLESS: They’re received and they’re used for election training.

Y. DAVIS: But are they already obligated, or are they additional funds—they are existing funds that are not obligated, is that your understanding?

HARLESS: Yes.

Y. DAVIS: And so we, in fact, would not have to apply for this money under Rider No. 11, the contingency appropriations, based on what you just articulated, is that correct?

HARLESS: We have to ask for approval from the election administration to use those funds for this source. That was the testimony in committee.

Y. DAVIS: Okay, so we would—so, I guess I want to make sure I understand—your representation is that the secretary of state already has HAVA funds that have not been appropriated that we can utilize for this program, whether we get additional funds or not won’t matter. Is that what you’re saying?

HARLESS: I’m not on the finance committee, but I know what’s in the appropriations bill. There is money there for that.

Y. DAVIS: Okay, but I want to make sure I’m asking it correctly, because in the bill that we’re going to take up next week, are you suggesting that, based on that bill that—the bill that’s going to come to us—funds have not been appropriated, so if we don’t get new funds, we have funds available for this program.

HARLESS: If we don’t get new funds, we already have the HAVA money sitting in the general revenue. The testimony in committee, secretary of state Ann McGeehan, stated that we have received some $2 million of HAVA funds. We have spent up to—whatever the difference is—that equals the $43 million, and that money is to be spent for election training. It’s in the general appropriations.
bill that Chairman Pitts laid out at the beginning of the session. I'm not sure what the next appropriations bill that we'll vote on will actually have in it, because I don't serve on Appropriations.

Y. DAVIS: Okay, for members—for those of us who don't serve on Appropriations either, I don't either, so I'm trying to understand where the money's going to come from, and to the extent that we don't need these funds, do we already have money allocated? I just want to make sure that I ask a question. If we don't get additional funds, will we have—will there be an issue with regard to this bill being passed down to our counties and they then are responsible to implement this without additional resources from the state?

HARLESS: The county passed what the secretary of state passes down, they receive funds for this, this is part of their normal duties. Every session, there are some election law changes. It is my understanding, from testimony from Harris County, that this has been their normal practice.

Y. DAVIS: This is a little bit more than normal practice because we're altering the entire process. And so, to the extent that this is a totally new program, the cost would be much greater than they traditionally would have as programs that were continuations of our existing program, wouldn't you say?

HARLESS: Yes, there was testimony in committee, the secretary of state spent a lot of time talking about what they wanted to do and what they would look to other states for best practices. They have budgets set aside every single year to enact new changes in election code.

Y. DAVIS: And my last question is, based on that deal, we really don't need this contingency rider? Is that what you're suggesting based on your comments?

HARLESS: It could be possible, but I didn't want to take any chance.

Y. DAVIS: Okay, but—and you're sure we don't have to worry about counties contacting us with regard to additional expenses for the implementing a new voter plan without having received money from the state? Is that your representation?

HARLESS: That is my understanding. The county receives money from the secretary of state that comes from the HAVA funds.

Y. DAVIS: That's a different question. My question is, based on implementing a new program, do we expect that the counties will incur additional costs to implement the new program that we will not fund?

HARLESS: I do not expect them to, but I cannot say for sure that they won't have additional costs.

Y. DAVIS: And if there are additional costs based on us passing this new bill, you're suggesting that the counties would then be responsible for those costs.

HARLESS: Excuse me, say that one more time.

Y. DAVIS: Are you suggesting that the counties could have additional costs associated with implementation of this program if we would not send funds to the counties for this program? Is that—HARLESS: The counties have additional costs on a lot of legislation we’ve passed, and a lot of it’s election. Every other session we pass new election laws that the county has to implement. I don’t know if they will with this bill.

Y. DAVIS: Is it your intent that this bill would not put another— an additional cost on the counties with regard to implementation of this new program?

HARLESS: I—that is my intent.

REPRESENTATIVE L. GONZALES: First of all, thank you.
HARLESS: You’re welcome.

L. GONZALES: Thank you for all you’ve done, for all your hard work—we appreciate it very much. I stand here before you as a very proud Latino, and I’ve got some questions for you.

HARLESS: Okay.

L. GONZALES: Is it your intention for this bill to disenfranchise ethnic minority voters?

HARLESS: No, sir.

L. GONZALES: Is it your intention, or anybody who has joint-authored or coauthored this bill, to disenfranchise ethnic minority voters?

HARLESS: No, sir.

L. GONZALES: Is it your intention for this bill to disenfranchise any voter, regardless of race, ethnicity, socioeconomic status, disability, age, or any combination thereof?

HARLESS: No.

L. GONZALES: Is it the intention of anybody who has joint-authored or coauthored this bill to disenfranchise any voter, regardless of race, ethnicity, socioeconomic status, disability, age, or any combination thereof?

HARLESS: No, it is not.

L. GONZALES: So we are not targeting my Hispanic 86-year-old grandfather?

HARLESS: No, we’re not.

L. GONZALES: So we are not targeting my Hispanic 84-year-old grandmother?

HARLESS: No.

L. GONZALES: Does this bill in any way disenfranchise any voter?

HARLESS: No.
L. GONZALES: Would you agree that the heart and the soul of our republic is the elections process? That these results determine our policy makers, and the decisions they make, which affect our everyday lives, that it is imperative that the voters of Texas have confidence in the integrity of the elections process, and that SB 14 goes a very long way to accomplish and secure this confidence?

HARLESS: I think it absolutely does.

The motion prevailed.

REPRESENTATIVE GARZA: Representative Harless, I wanted to echo the sentiments of Representative Gonzales. I come from the west side of San Antonio; my father was a first generation Hispanic who served in the military for over 20 years. And I came to this place, the house of representatives, to basically—the attitude that minorities, especially we, as Hispanics, are disabled in our ability to get an identification, a driver's license, to be able to do what it takes to exercise our right to vote, it's sometimes insulting. We have the ability and we have the right, and my father and many of the Hispanics that are here are examples that we are able, and we want to begin to proclaim the ability of our people to achieve the many things that we have as a race. So, I think the positive part is that we are able, and our people are able, to achieve these things that have been said that they're not able or disenfranchised or unable to do. And being a Texan and being Hispanic, I know that we are to overcome, and we have overcome, and we will continue to overcome. But to answer some of the questions that caused some confusion to some of the representatives, I wanted to ask you specifically, will this bill encourage voter participation by all Texans, regardless of race, ethnicity, socioeconomic status, their disability, their age, or any of the combinations thereof, by giving them confidence in the election process that Representative Aliseda spoke about?

HARLESS: I believe it will.

GARZA: And let me ask you again, with the passage of this bill, will all Texans, including those mentioned, have equal access to this election process with the passage of this bill?

HARLESS: Yes.

GARZA: So, the Hispanic voters in my district, House District 117, will have full confidence that their vote will count in a trustworthy election process?

HARLESS: Yes.

GARZA: And the African American voters in my district—they'll have full confidence that their vote will count in this trustworthy election process?

HARLESS: Yes.
GARZA: Okay, and finally, every voter in my district of 117 in San Antonio, and every house district in the State of Texas, regardless of race, ethnicity, their socioeconomic status, their disability, age, or, again, any combination thereof, will have full confidence that their vote will count in a trustworthy election process.

HARLESS: Absolutely, yes.

REPRESENTATIVE COLEMAN: Thank you, Ms. Harless, and you know you and I are really good friends.

HARLESS: We are.

COLEMAN: And I respect you greatly, and this is nothing personal to you.

HARLESS: I know that, and I appreciate that. Thank you, I feel the same.

COLEMAN: Do you know if the members who said that they represent people of color, did they come from districts that are a majority of color?

HARLESS: Say that one more time, the end part.

COLEMAN: Do they come from the districts that are majority of color? Do they have districts that are more people that are black and brown or other ethnicities than non black and brown?

HARLESS: I can't answer that, Garnet.

COLEMAN: Are they from majority minority districts? This is important for the record. You may not be able to answer it, but that is important for the record.

HARLESS: I would say that they probably think that their district is majority minority. I don't know that, I'm not advised of that.

COLEMAN: Well, we're thinking it's not the case and they're speaking on behalf of their opinion, but in terms of how we do law in this state, it is based on the number of people who reside in a district and whether or not that is protected. Ms. Harless, is that true?

HARLESS: Say the last—

COLEMAN: The Voting Rights Act. Isn't that based on the number of people of color that reside in a district that are protected under the Voting Rights Act?

HARLESS: I'm not advised.

COLEMAN: Okay. So the answer is yes. You may not be advised, but I can tell you under the law that the answer is yes. I'm advising you that is the case.

HARLESS: Okay.
COLEMAN: Now, when you say that the individuals in this room did not believe that they were disenfranchised, is that because you didn't hear them or you didn't see them or you didn't know that was the majority of the sentiment of the people who represent majority minority districts that actually were making comment on this floor? I know you may not be advised, but I can tell you right now and you can see that the majority of them do believe that they were disenfranchised, and they are the majority of the people in this house that are districts' representatives from districts that are majority minority. Isn't that correct?

HARLESS: I think the record speaks for itself. They've testified on record. We have transcripts of it. A lot of the communication—

COLEMAN: The record speaks for itself, but it's clear that the members standing around me right now, and the members that have been there today actually did say that they believe this bill disenfranchised their constituents, and that disenfranchisement was a reason why they didn't want to vote for this bill and thought this bill needed to be changed. And, since you aren't advised I will let you know that is the case. Thank you, Ms. Harless, for doing such a great job on a difficult subject.

HARLESS: Thank you.

REASONS FOR VOTE

Numerous amendments to improve SB 14 would have made the bill more fair by reducing the risk of disenfranchising eligible, registered Texas voters. Unfortunately, the majority rejected amendments to expand the types of photo identification acceptable for voting. They rejected an amendment that would have allowed voters to sign an affidavit swearing to their identity, and to cast a provisional ballot with the assurance that their ballot would be counted if the signature on the affidavit matched the signature on the voter registration file. The majority also voted against exemptions for seniors, the indigent, people with religious objections, and women who have had their names changed due to marriage or divorce. High school students over 18 will not be able to vote with their school IDs. College students legally registered in Texas will not be able to vote with out-of-state driver's licenses. In addition, this bill is a vast unfunded mandate on counties. SB 14 also unconstitutionally and illegally raids the Texas mobility fund. In light of our historic budget shortfall, this bill is fiscally irresponsible. Finally, these disadvantages of the bill must be weighed against its purported advantages in terms of reducing voter impersonation. In the absence of evidence of voter fraud of a type that would be prevented by the provisions in this bill, it is clear that this bill would do more harm than good to the integrity of our elections system.
