Amendment No. 26

Representative V. Gonzales offered the following amendment to CSSB 14:

Amend CSSB 14 as follows:

(1) In the recital to SECTION 15 of the bill (page 10, line 26), strike "Subsection (b-i)" and substitute "Subsections (b-1) and (f)".

(2) In SECTION 15 of the bill, add the following after added Section 63.011(b-1), Election Code (page 11, between lines 18 and 19):

(f) In addition to the affidavit required by this section, a person who casts a provisional ballot under this section and is described by Section 65.054(b)(2)(B) may execute an affidavit under that section at the polling place. Forms for affidavits under Section 65.054(b)(2)(B) must be available at each polling place.
(3) In SECTION 18 of the bill, in added Section 65.0541(a)(2), Election Code (page 13, line 4), between "presence of" and "the voter registrar", insert "an election officer at the polling place or".

AMENDMENT NO. 26 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE HARLESS: I wanted to clarify what our conversation was—you talked about having these affidavits at the polling place that they have to sign if they are casting a provisional ballot. You’re not in any way trying to cut out the photo ID requirements, are you?

REPRESENTATIVE V. GONZALES: Not with this particular amendment. This amendment would simply say, your bill already includes the requirement that an affidavit be signed if they have to fill out a provisional ballot. All this would say is, let’s make it available to them at the polling places, so that they don’t have to be traveling to another location to fill out an affidavit.

HARLESS: Right, so they show up at a polling place, and they don’t have one of the subscribed forms of identification, and they fill out a provisional ballot and have to sign an affidavit. You’re saying that when they’re at that polling place, if they want to cast the provisional ballot that requires affidavits signed, that that polling place should have those affidavits there on the location site.

V. GONZALES: That’s correct.

Amendment No. 34

Representative Raymond offered the following amendment to CSSB 14:

Amend CSSB 14 as follows:

(1) On page 15, line 11, insert the following new section and renumber the subsection appropriately:

SECTION 25. This Act is legally unenforceable if it does not comply with Section 5, Section 203, and Section (4)(b)(4) of the Voting Rights Act.

AMENDMENT NO. 34 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE HARLESS: Mr. Speaker, members, the Voting Rights Act either does or does not apply to various sections of this bill. This is for the supreme court to determine and not the Texas Legislature. I move to table.

REPRESENTATIVE RAYMOND: Ms. Harless, do you believe the Voting Rights Act is a good law?

HARLESS: I do.

RAYMOND: So you believe there is still discrimination in the voting place?

HARLESS: I'm sorry?

RAYMOND: So you believe there is still discrimination in the voting place?

HARLESS: No, I do not think there is.

RAYMOND: Then why do you think the Voting Rights Act is a good law?

HARLESS: I think at the time, when it was passed, it was very effective. Texas is a Section 5 state, it's going to have to go for pre-clearance either before the Department of Justice or the three federal judges in the District of Columbia. They will decide if we have met the standards of the Voting Rights Act. This is not the venue for us to decide. We've got the lines that they have drawn in the cases we have already seen. We know that—we know the standards they've set, we've complied with that in our bill. This is not the venue to have this—

RAYMOND: Are you telling me we don't need the Voting Rights Act anymore?

HARLESS: You're putting words into my mouth.

RAYMOND: I'm asking. Do you believe we still need the Voting Rights Act?

HARLESS: I don't think this is the place to debate that.

RAYMOND: Yes ma'am, it is entirely the place to debate that. Would you agree this is a major piece of legislation dealing with voting in the State of Texas?

HARLESS: I do.

RAYMOND: And you do not believe that the Voting Rights Act should be discussed in this context?
HARLESS: We have discussed it.

RAYMOND: Okay, then let's continue to discuss it for a minute. Do you believe the Voting Rights Act is still necessary?

HARLESS: I believe we're still under the regulations of the Voting Rights Act.

RAYMOND: I'm asking you, because you are the author of this very important bill, and I think this is very important for people to understand your intent. Do you believe the Voting Rights Act is still necessary?

HARLESS: As I've said before, this is a federal issue to be decided by the federal courts. This isn't for us and the Texas Legislature to discuss right now.

RAYMOND: Ma'am, you are dealing with legislation here—you are proposing a bill that would affect every single voter in the State of Texas, including minorities. You would agree with that, right?

HARLESS: Say that one more time. It's hard to hear.

RAYMOND: You are presenting a bill that would affect the voting rights of every voter in the State of Texas, including minorities, would you agree with that?

HARLESS: I do not agree with that.

RAYMOND: Really, your bill doesn't apply to minorities?

HARLESS: I think we increase access to the polls by putting some checks and balances—that voters actually show ID, that they are who they are when they show up to vote in person.

RAYMOND: I have a very simple question. Does your bill apply to minorities in the State of Texas?

HARLESS: My bill applies to everyone equally across the state.

RAYMOND: Including minorities, is that right?

HARLESS: Everyone.

RAYMOND: Including minorities?

HARLESS: All Texans.

RAYMOND: Including minorities?

HARLESS: All Texans.

RAYMOND: Including minorities?

HARLESS: All Texans.

RAYMOND: You won't even acknowledge whether or not your bill affects—

HARLESS: I said it applies to all Texans.

RAYMOND: Including minorities, right?

HARLESS: All Texans. Every voter in the State of Texas.

RAYMOND: Minorities are Texans, right?
HARLESS: Do you want to go back and forth all day on this? I've answered your question.
RAYMOND: With all due respect, I feel like you are being flippant about something that's very important to millions of Texans.
HARLESS: I absolutely don't mean to be flippant. If I'm coming across that way I apologize.
RAYMOND: It's a very simple question.
HARLESS: And I gave you a very simple answer. It applies to all Texans.
RAYMOND: I'll ask you one more time. Does your bill apply to minorities in the State of Texas?
REPRESENTATIVE VEASEY: Mr. Raymond, why don't you think Representative Harless would answer your questions directly? It was a very important question dealing with the Voting Rights Act. We know that we are a Section 5 state. I hope that she knows we're a Section 5 state if she's carrying this bill, and could you maybe elaborate on why she did not want to answer your question directly?
RAYMOND: You know, it's hard to read someone else's mind. But, I will tell you that in 2006, I'm not sure every member in here knows this, but in 2006 a man named George W. Bush signed into law the extension of the Voting Rights Act for 25 years and he said, "Although we've come a long way, there's still a ways to go." And for the author of this bill not to acknowledge what a president from this state was willing to acknowledge a mere five years ago, and that is, the Voting Rights Act is still necessary. And that her bill would in fact affect millions of Texans who are minorities and who are protected by Section 2 of the Voting Rights Act is troubling. I mean I don't know what else to tell you, but I think that it should certainly give people pause to think about what's going on here.
VEASEY: If you're the author of a bill like this that's going to drastically change election law in your state, don't you think you should have a good understanding of the Voting Rights Act and the history of the Act and why it was passed before you embark on a piece of legislation that could have the type of consequences that I believe this piece of legislation will have?
RAYMOND: Well, I would expect that in the year 2011, but you just heard the exchange. It was surprising and troubling to me that the author of this bill was not willing to acknowledge the importance of the Voting Rights Act and the fact that her bill would affect millions of Texans who are protected by it.
VEASEY: You have a good amendment and because of all the good amendments that have been turned down tonight, we can see exactly where this bill is headed. Thank you, Representative Raymond.
RAYMOND: Thank you.
REPRESENTATIVE BERMAN: Richard, you're a good guy, and Richard, are you a minority?
RAYMOND: I am.
BERMAN: Is Mr. Veasey a minority?
RAYMOND: Yes, sir.
BERMAN: Are you both Texans?
RAYMOND: Yes, sir, we are.
BERMAN: Ms. Harless answered the question then. She said "all Texans."
RAYMOND: You know, Leo, and I'm glad you call me Richard, because I like for us to talk to each other in the—
BERMAN: Because I like you.
RAYMOND: You were listening to it, Leo, and you've been around 75 years, as you've just mentioned. She specifically would not answer, she specifically would not say, when I asked a simple question, "Will this affect minorities? Will your bill include minorities?" In other words, I'm a minority, is this going to apply to me? I'm going to need a voter ID to go vote, right?
BERMAN: Yes, but you're a Texan.
RAYMOND: No, but listen to it, Leo. You listen to us, you listen to us. I said well tell me, does this affect minorities? "It affects all Texans." Well, just if it would affect minorities—she wouldn't say it.
BERMAN: I think you hit her too hard, really.
RAYMOND: She's not a shrinking violet, she's a tough lady.
BERMAN: But she said "all Texans," and all Texans include every minority in Texas. Of course they do.
RAYMOND: Let me ask you, Leo. Do you believe this bill applies to minorities in the State of Texas?
BERMAN: Yes, I do.
RAYMOND: You see, you were willing to answer it.
BERMAN: But she didn't have to, she said "all Texans."

Amendment No. 35

Representative Raymond offered the following amendment to CSSB 14:

Amend CSSB 14 (house committee report) in SECTION 5 of the bill, in added Section 31.012, Election Code (page 3, between lines 25 and 26), by inserting the following new Subsection (d) and relettering the subsequent subsections of added Section 31.012, Election Code, accordingly:

(d) Sections 203 and 14(f)(4) of the Voting Rights Act apply to this section.

AMENDMENT NO. 35 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE RAYMOND: Very simply, I guess I want to ask you, do you believe that this bill should comply with the Voting Rights Act?

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: I believe that we need to follow the law and make sure that we comply with every constitutional requirement that is imposed on us as a body. Now, what you're—this is a specific section and portion of the Voting Rights Act. I don't know if those sections apply to this, that will be up to the—what will be up to, ultimately, the supreme court to determine, and that's who we need to let determine. I don't think we need to by trying to second-guess what they do mean and don't mean and whether all of these provisions apply.

RAYMOND: Well, let me ask, because I see a troubling pattern here—

PHILLIPS: I can't hear you—

RAYMOND: Let me ask, because I see a troubling pattern, simple question: Do you believe that the Voting Rights Act is a good law?
P H I L L I P S: That is not a question before us. There are issues of whether all of the Voting Rights Act are necessary at this time. There are parts of it that have been important to transform elections in this nation.
R A Y M O N D: So you believe, so you don’t believe the Voting Rights Act is necessary?
P H I L L I P S: I’m not going to get into—
R A Y M O N D: This is important—we’re—
P H I L L I P S: Let me answer.
R A Y M O N D: Let me ask my question, and then you can answer.
P H I L L I P S: You asked a question, then you answered a question, then you asked a question again—
R A Y M O N D: No, no, I’ll ask—
P H I L L I P S: —but you won’t let me answer.
R A Y M O N D: Let me—because I didn’t ask it clearly I think. Do you believe—do you believe—Mr. Phillips—
P H I L L I P S: Go ahead, I’m waiting for your question.
R A Y M O N D: Let me ask this, you recognize that Texas is a protected—do you know or do you recognize that Texas is a protected state under the Voting Rights Act? Just yes or no.
P H I L L I P S: Yes, I do. The federal government, under George Bush, they voted to extend the Voting Rights Act for 25 years; yes, they did.
R A Y M O N D: Okay, so you recognize that we’re covered by that then?
P H I L L I P S: And that’s the whole point, we’re covered by that and we don’t need to say—you’re trying to impose something on this bill from a federal perspective.
We either are or we aren’t.
R A Y M O N D: Exactly, and all I’m saying with this amendment—all I’m saying with this amendment—and this is why I’m baffled why you would move to table it, is that if we don’t comply with the Voting Rights Act, it should not become law. Is it your position that if it does not comply with the Voting Rights Act it should still become law?
P H I L L I P S: You’re bringing sections in and saying this has to apply to every provision, and that’s not the—
R A Y M O N D: No, no, no, no—
P H I L L I P S: That’s not what we need to do, we need to leave that for the federal government. I mean, for the courts to decide whether we comply. Because the lawyers have worked through this to craft this, and we do not want to do anything that’s going to viol—so that’s what we’re going to do.
R A Y M O N D: This, very specifically, what you just said is not accurate, Larry.
This amendment very specifically applies to one section of the bill.
PHILLIPS: Right.

RAYMOND: The voter identification education section. That's all. If you look at the amendment.

PHILLIPS: You're asking to include, and say this section of federal law applies to what we're doing. That's part of the—I don't know—I mean, from my perspective, I don't know that we need to be here saying, well, gosh, we want everything to apply to everything we do. If it's covered by it, it's covered by it, Mr. Raymond. We don't need to include it. They'll determine that.

RAYMOND: Surely—I want to make sure I'm hearing you right—surely you would want us to comply with federal voting rights?

PHILLIPS: Mr. Raymond, that's exactly the point we've been making.

RAYMOND: You do want us to comply with that—so, I'm clear, you do want this—you do, you do want this—

PHILLIPS: No, we want to comply with federal law. And that's exactly the intent and purpose of what we're doing here today in trying to comply with federal law. That's why we're trying to keep this bill simple, and the whole procedure simple, instead of adding stuff to it that may trigger a section that does or does not apply. I don't see the problem.

RAYMOND: Well, you—again, are you saying that SB 14, the section that I—the voter identification education section—do you want it to comply with the federal voting rights laws?

PHILLIPS: I want this to comply with federal laws, and if the voting rights laws that are in effect apply to this and they're constitutional, the supreme court will uphold it, and if they don't, they won't.

RAYMOND: Well, then all my amendment says—

PHILLIPS: Your amendment says this has to apply here, and that's something we're saying we're not going to start doing. We could go through and say we want the entire constitution of the United States to apply to this law. It either does, or it doesn't. We don't need to do that as a state. The federal government passes the laws that they do, and we're either going to follow those laws or not. We either have to or we don't, and that's part of the debate that is going on across this nation of what we do and we do not want to—we don't want to incorporate—we're trying to stop federal laws that we don't agree with—

RAYMOND: So, you believe that—so I'm clear—you believe that this section of the bill, which deals with language, right, voter identification education, and the words language are used in that section of the bill, you believe that they may not need to comply with the Voting Rights Act, is that correct?

PHILLIPS: Either they—either do or they don't.

RAYMOND: And if they don't, it should not—it should not—

PHILLIPS: No, then you're starting to put a requirement or a hurdle that may or may not need to be there.
RAYMOND: Larry, how could you honestly look at me and say we’re talking about—let me finish my question—how could you honestly look at me and say we have a major piece of legislation here and the section of the bill that deals with voter identification education and uses the words language, because, obviously in the State of Texas, there are people like my grandmother who didn’t speak English, but who was a United States citizen her whole life, that that would not be covered and should not be covered by the Voting Rights Act? How can you honestly say that, Larry?

Again members, it is frustrating in the year 2011, to stand up here and be debating members of this legislature who do not want—who appear to me—do not want the Voting Rights Act to apply to this bill. It is disheartening, it is wrong, and I think in the end you will not prevail. We shall overcome.
