Many on the left oppose common-sense Voter ID under the false claim that it "suppresses voter turnout". Last week's Constitutional Election proved that wrong as turnout was 159% of the 2011 turnout and 110% of the 2009 and 2007 turnout.

Fact is, in Texas, Voter ID increased voter turnout! LIKE this news to put the myths to bed!

LIKE Comment Share Edit

Elliott James Griffin, Melody Spray, Maggie Clopton Wright and 172 others like this.

Margie Cude Knowles So deal with the facts liberals! I know you don't like the TRUTH! Too bad.

Like Reply 53 November 12, 2013 at 7:48pm

Tyson Dunn I've been an election judge for years. Voter fraud is a fallacy that really doesn't happen. Really, it doesn't. And as a matter of fact, I turned 72 people away that were on the books, with a valid voter certificate, but because they had