ARMY OF ELECTION WORKERS PREPARED FOR ELECTION DAY

County Clerk Stan Stanart Reminds Voters, “Bring your Photo ID to the poll.”

Houston, TX – 4,500 Election Judges and Clerks are prepared to receive voters on Election Day, Tuesday, November 5, at the 775 locations throughout Harris County. This Election will be the first Election in which Photo ID will be implemented at the Election Day polls.

“In preparation for Election Day, poll workers have been trained on the new Photo ID requirements and are ready for voters to cast their ballots,” said Harris County Clerk Stan Stanart, the Chief Election Officer of the county. “Election Day should go as smoothly as the Early Voting Period.”

Early voting brought 109,370 voters to the polls, the largest number of early voters in an odd numbered November Election in the history of Harris County. Of those voters, there were very few provisional ballots cast due to voters not presenting proper photo identification. The unofficial Early Voting tally of current registered voters with ID issues shows six who presented expired/suspended TX DPS IDs, two who presented out of State IDs, and nine who did not present any photo ID. These voters and any from Election Day, will have until November 12th to present a valid Photo ID to the Voter Registrar, so that their ballot can be counted.

“As the Chief Election Official, I have great confidence in voters,” expressed Stanart. “I am not surprised by voters being prepared to comply with the photo identification requirement.”

Voters are now required to provide one of the seven types of Photo IDs when voting in-person. The state approved photo identification for voting includes:

- Texas Driver License issued by the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS)
- Texas Election Identification Certificate issued by DPS
- Texas Personal Identification Card issued by DPS
• Texas Concealed Handgun License issued by DPS
• United States Military Identification Card containing the person’s photograph
• United States Citizenship Certificate containing the person’s photograph
• United States Passport

With the exception of the U.S. Citizenship Certificate and some Military Identifications, the ID must be current or have expired no more than 60 days before being presented at the polling place.

“If you have not done so, I encourage you to go vote,” concluded Stanart. “Be sure to bring your photo ID to the poll; and, remember, on Election Day, you have to vote at the precinct where you are registered to vote.

I HIGHLY recommend that we do notetail the provisionals with photo ID. I would say something more along the lines of less than 25 voters had issues with their photo ID. This is really inviting problems and it is not necessary.

Should we mention that they have to present their ID to the tax office so that there won’t be confusion?

Also, usually in print, if the number is two to three digits, you usually spell out the number. (Example: six instead of 6). You may want to update the numbers 5, 2 and 9 when referring to the unofficial EV tally of provisional votes.

The quote that says “I am not surprised by voters’ being prepared...” needs to use the word voters without the apostrophe (‘).

Thank you.
