PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

ASSOCIATE CLINICAL PROFESSOR OF LAW

The Ohio State University Moritz College of Law, Columbus, Ohio July 2000-present

Work with Director of Legislation Clinic to develop curriculum and teach twice-weekly class to second and third year law students on various aspects of the Ohio legislative process. Supervise students working in offices around the Ohio Statehouse by regularly communicating with students and their sponsors, overseeing all written work provided by students to sponsors, and guiding student research projects. Monitor events at Statehouse by attending committee hearings and floor sessions, reading media reports, and maintaining contacts with legislative participants. Assist Director in planning and implementing conferences on current public policy issues of importance to state legislatures. Help coordinate Legislation Clinic publications. Teach legal analysis and writing to a small section of first year students, including intensive one-on-one reviews of multiple drafts. Evaluate texts and develop research and writing problems.

SENIOR FELLOW

The Ohio State University Moritz College of Law Election Law @ Moritz Program May 2004-present

Participated in planning and implementing Election Law @ Moritz, a web-based resource on Ohio and national election law. Participated in live and taped national and international media interviews for 2004 Presidential election and 2006 mid-term election. Analyze election law for posting on web site. Research and write entries for “e-book on Election Law,” an online reference guide. Contribute to Election Law @ Moritz Weekly Comments. Respond to email and telephone queries from media and public on election-related topics.

LEGAL COUNSEL

Ohio Senate Democratic Caucus, Columbus, Ohio April 1997-June 2000

Provided legal research and policy analysis to Senate Minority Leader and other Democratic Senators by: analyzing and summarizing all bills in Senate Education, Judiciary, and Rules committees; initiating amendments and legislation, shepherding them from the drafting process through Senate floor votes and in the House; educating and advising Senate Minority Leader and other caucus members of potential policy and political implications of bills during confidential caucus meetings; negotiating bills and amendments with majority and minority committee members, majority and minority staff, and lobbyists; writing the minority party amicus brief for DeRolph v. State II (school funding appeal); assisting minority members of the Joint Committee on Agency Rule Review and other committees as requested; drafting correspondence to majority leader and administrative agencies as requested; researching campaign finance laws for caucus members; and supervising support staff on various administrative projects.
