

THE OHIO STATE JOURNAL ON DISPUTE RESOLUTION

invites you to subscribe to the nation's leading journal on alternative dispute resolution.

- The Ohio State Journal on Dispute Resolution ("JDR") is the official journal of the ABA Section on Dispute Resolution.
- Subscribers of JDR receive four issues annually. Two general issues include articles and book reviews written by highly regarded academics and practitioners in the field of alternative dispute resolution. It also includes notes and comments, and recent development notes authored by outstanding students on the staff. The special symposium issue contains articles submitted by participants in our annual symposium. The final issue is an annotated bibliography issue outlines the latest articles and discussions published in the last year.
- JDR sponsors an annual symposium covering a current debate in the field of alternative dispute resolution. Papers submitted to the symposium are published in a special symposium issue.
- For more information on JDR or the annual symposium, you can find us on the Web at <http://moritzlaw.osu.edu/jdr>, or you can email us at osu-jdr@osu.edu
