The Ohio State University
MORITZ COLLEGE OF LAW

Public Service Fellow Program Supervisor's Agreement

I supervised Moritz College of Law student _____ in work that was legal in nature during the time period of_____. Such work included but was not limited to legal research, writing, drafting, and fact gathering for the purpose of understanding or assisting in the resolution of a legal problem. It may have also included but was not limited to work on matters relating to legislation, regulation, teaching, litigation or alternative dispute resolution.

I understand that important aspects of my supervision included careful oversight of all of the student's work to assure that it was of high quality and to assure that the work was accomplished in a manner consistent with ethical constraints on unauthorized practice of law.

I also understand that the student is not to be compensated by my agency for his or her work, although there may be reimbursement for out-of-pocket expenses.

The following is a description of the projects, time spent, and the nature of the work including an evaluation of the student's performance. (If you need more space please attach additional sheets.)
