

Program on Data and Governance | 2021 Highlights

February 10, 2021

Business Data Ethics report receives Privacy Papers for Policymakers Award
The Future of Privacy Forum (FPF) announced the winners of the 11th annual Privacy Papers for Policymakers awards on February 10 and selected for Honorable Mention: Business Data Ethics: Governance Transformations for the Era of Advanced Analytics and AI by the interdisciplinary team of Dennis Hirsch, Timothy Bartley (now of Washington University in St Louis), Aravind Chandrasekaran, Srinivasan Parthasarathy, Piers Norris Turner, and Davon Norris from The Ohio State University.

January 22, 2021

Dennis Hirsch quoted in Newsweek
In a Newsweek article by Katherine Fung entitled: MSNBC's Joe Scarborough Doesn't Understand Why Trump Activists Aren't Under Surveillance, Dennis Hirsch talks about the Fourth Amendment and its application to domestic surveillance.

January 20, 2021

Dennis Hirsch on Cyberwire podcast
Dennis Hirsch appears on an episode of the Cyberwire podcast to discuss data ethics. (The interview with Dennis starts at the 20 minute mark.)