In Memoriam
Associate Dean Christopher M. Fairman

The editors of the Ohio State Law Journal respectfully dedicate this issue to Associate Dean Christopher M. Fairman.

Chris Fairman was born on July 26, 1960, in Parsons, Kansas. In 1982, he earned a B.A. from the University of Texas at Austin. Before returning to the University of Texas to attend law school, Dean Fairman was a high school history teacher at McCallum High School in Austin. After earning his J.D. in 1994, Dean Fairman clerked for Justice J. Woodfin Jones of the Texas Court of Appeals for the Third District and for Judge Fortunato P. Benavides of the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit.

In 2000, Dean Fairman joined the law faculty at The Ohio State University Michael E. Moritz College of Law. He was promoted to full professor in 2007, and became Associate Dean for Faculty in 2013. While a professor at Moritz, Dean Fairman earned several awards for teaching and served as faculty advisor to several student organizations, including the ABA National Appellate Advocacy moot court team.

Dean Fairman passed away on July 22, 2015. Throughout his career, Dean Fairman made a profound impact on former students and colleagues alike. He will be remembered for his passion for teaching and as a zealous advocate for students.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

ALAN C. MICHAELS ................................................................. 509
DANIEL MARKOVITS ............................................................... 513
MARC SPINDELMAN ................................................................. 515

2 Id.
4 See Fairman Obituary, supra note 1.
6 Id.
7 Fairman Obituary, supra note 1.
8 See Michaels, supra note 3; Markovits, supra note 3; Marc Spindelman, In Memoriam, Schockfreude and the Very Democratic Teachings of “Professor Fuck,” 77 OHIO ST. L.J. 515 (2016); see also College Mourns Loss of Associate Dean Fairman, supra note 5.