The Ohio State University Moritz College of Law is one of the top-ranked public law schools in the United States and our Master of Laws (LLM) program is designed for foreign-trained lawyers interested in learning about the American legal system. Our LLM students come from all over the globe. This allows our graduates the ability to create a network of attorneys that crosses continents and oceans. LLM and JD students take classes side by side and often study and socialize together after class.

Ohio State is one of the best places in America to earn an LLM. Why? We are a nationally ranked program that provides excellent overall value and endless opportunities. Our challenging academic program is led by dedicated professors who are international experts in their fields. Our tuition is half the amount of comparable private universities. Our location provides for excellent internships and job opportunities and a modest cost of living in a thriving, safe city. Our name is big, our community is small and tight-knit.

OUR PROGRAM
FOR FOREIGN-TRAINED LAWYERS

At Moritz, we offer a wide range of courses designed to build a solid foundation in understanding the American legal system. We offer over 150 courses offered designed to build a solid foundation in understanding the American legal system. We also offer many innovative courses and challenging seminars that explore new and emerging legal fields and issues. We create a custom course schedule for each of our LLM students that is designed to meet an individual’s needs and interests.

CONCENTRATION AREAS
- Alternative Dispute Resolution (top-ranked program in the country)
- Corporate Law
- Criminal Law
- Employment and Labor Law
- Intellectual Property and Technology Law
- International and Comparative Law

Columbus is the capital city of Ohio and is located in the Midwest region of the United States. It is the 14th largest city in the United States, with approximately 2 million people in the metro area, and has a much more affordable cost of living than other major cities. Columbus is a business epicenter with a diverse, fast-growing economy and hundreds of company headquarters. The city also supports a bustling cultural scene, rich with concerts, theaters, music and sporting events.

FOR MORE INFORMATION:
INTERNATIONAL AND GRADUATE AFFAIRS
The Ohio State University
Moritz College of Law
55 W. 12th Ave., Columbus, OH 43210-1391
United States of America
moritzlaw.osu.edu/llm
moritzllm@osu.edu
PHONE: 001-614-292-1241
The professors at Moritz are some of the leading legal scholars in the world. Our professors believe in innovation and creative and innovative legal topics and are often asked to serve as experts for policy makers and the national media. They have clerked for the Supreme Court of the United States and have provided counsel to some of the largest international companies in the world. Most importantly, our professors love to teach and have been recognized with the university’s highest teaching awards more than a dozen times. They are genuinely interested in helping students thrive in and out of class. Our small, low faculty/student ratio, and open-door culture encourage personal contact with faculty, leading to supportive mentoring, career services specifically for LLMs, faculty member. A limited number of opportunities exist for Ohio State has the top-ranked alternative dispute resolution program in the country and trains students in negotiation and mediation. Two experiential learning courses allow students to gain experience working with real clients under the direction of a faculty member. Ohio State has a career services center dedicated to assisting students plan and take the next steps in their careers. All applications completed and received by February 1 will receive priority consideration for scholarship awards. All applications will be considered for all applicable scholarships. Moritz LLM Scholarship, Scholarship for the Americas, Scholarship for Europe, Scholarship for Africa, Scholarship for the Americas, Scholarship for Europe, Scholarship for Africa.

...