

Meghna Rao- Meghna Rao is an associate at Squire Patton Boggs (US) LLP. She practices in the area of financial services and insurance regulation. Her practice assists insurance carriers and financial institutions with regulatory and corporate initiatives and includes a broad variety of state and federal regulatory landscapes. Some areas of expertise in her practice include holding company M&A regulatory approvals, Medicaid and Medicare, the Affordable Care Act, insurance renewal/non-renewal requirements, claims settlement practices, e-signature, e-delivery and privacy notice law compliance. She interfaces directly with Departments of Insurance on approval for various client initiatives. In her free time, Meghna serves as a volunteer lawyer at Advocating Opportunity, serving as defense counsel for human trafficking survivors throughout their expungement proceedings, clearing past criminal records with the court and allowing for proper rehabilitation and a fresh start. Additionally, Meghna sits on the Executive Board of the Women Lawyers of Franklin County.