

Rhianna Wardian- Rhianna Wardian is a current 3L earning both her Juris Doctor and Master of Health Administration degree at The Ohio State University. Rhianna previously earned a Bachelor of Arts in Communication Television and Journalism from The University of South Florida. After graduation Rhianna will be completing a year of Fellowship at the Cleveland Clinic as a Healthcare

Administrator. This role merges both her passion for health and service to others. Rhianna brings over six years of professional experience in business management and health as she opened three of the largest corporate yoga studios in Chicago and also worked for Mckesson in their Plasma and Biologics Division. Rhianna has devoted her yoga teaching skills, professional expertise, and academic education to advocate for mental wellness, boundaries, and overall patient care. Rhianna is President of Health Law Society and was recognized by the Leadership Counsel on Leadership Diversity as a Summit Scholar. She is a trained classical pianist and plays occasionally for fundraising events and competes in state competitions. Rhianna serves as a representative for the Association of Future Healthcare Executives. She is the recipient of multiple CALI Awards and is a student member of the Columbus Women's Bar Association and the American College of Healthcare Executives. She is active in her community as she continues to teach yoga and host specialty wellness workshops for professionals, young girls, and women. Rhianna holds a 500 Hour certification in yoga, Advanced Anatomy and Movement, and Thai Massage from Yoga Alliance.