Dear

Please be advised that the Secretary of State’s Office has an administrative process in place for the evaluation of complaints regarding election and government code violations in New Mexico. This procedure is designed to expedite the resolution of complaints similar to the one pertaining to you, as described herein.

In specific, you have been identified as an interested party in this matter. A complaint was filed with our office by Mr. Robert Adams, Bernalillo Deputy County Clerk alleging that you failed to deliver or mail two (2) certificates of registration to the Secretary of State or County Clerk within forty-eight hours of its completion by the persons registering to vote or deliver them the next business day if the appropriate office is closed for that forty-eight-hour period pursuant to Section 1-4-49(B) NMSA 1978. You are being provided with the opportunity to file a response and submit any relevant evidence to assist with our investigation. Kindly provide your response to the Ethics Investigation Officer identified below by February 27, 2010, at 5:00 PM. If we do not receive a response by this date and time, we will assume that you have chosen not to respond. Attached are documents that have been submitted and a brief description of the aforementioned administrative process to resolve the pending complaint.

If you have questions, you may contact our office at 505.827.3600 and ask for Manuel F. Vildasol, the Ethics Investigation Officer.

Note: The burden of proof lies with both parties, which means that the final results of the investigation are based on the information and documentation provided by the complainant and the respondent’s rebuttal.
PROCEDURE FOR HANDLING COMPLAINTS

The procedure for handling complaints is outlined below:

1. The Secretary of State receives the complaint.

2. The Secretary of State sends a copy of the complaint to all interested parties, requesting a response within 10 business days of receipt of the letter. Receipt is presumed on the third calendar day after mailing. This inquiry letter is also provided to the complainant who is invited to submit additional evidence.

3. Responses are received and copied to the complainant. If complainant has submitted additional evidence, this is copied to respondent parties. The Secretary of State may request information from any source, may require responses to specific questions, conduct interviews, or require production of documents. If the Secretary of State requires such information, deadlines will be appropriately extended and all interested parties will be notified thereof.

4. All interested parties are advised by letter that they may submit additional evidence within 10 business days of the notice of response and that they will receive an expedited written determination of whether there is a basis for a reasonable belief of violation within 15 business days of the final date for submission. Parties are also notified that they can request an abbreviated administrative hearing in lieu of the expedited determination and an administrative proceeding will be conducted by the investigative officer within three (3) months unless reasonable continuances extend this period.

5. All interested parties will receive an expedited written determination of whether there is a basis for a reasonable belief of violation within 15 business days of the final date for submission unless there is a request for hearing.

In the event that there is a request for a hearing, the following procedures shall apply:

6. Upon request for a hearing, an investigative officer from the Secretary of State will be appointed to conduct an abbreviated administrative hearing. This will be an informal inquiry and attorneys are not required.

7. The Rules of Evidence shall not apply to the proceeding conducted before the investigative officer. The complainant bears the burden of proof. The complainant will present their case and each opposing interested party will have the right of cross examination. Opposing interested parties may then present evidence and testimony subject to cross examination. If no opposing evidence or testimony is presented, the complaint will be evaluated solely on the complainant’s evidence and testimony presented. All opening and closing arguments must be written and submitted in a timely manner. Opening statements are due five (5) business days prior to hearing and closing arguments are due two business days after hearing.

8. Within 15 days of the hearing, the Ethics Investigations Officer will provide a written determination of whether there is a basis for a reasonable belief of violation and if there is such a belief, the matter will be referred to the Attorney General’s Office for independent review and possible litigation.

Note: A copy of the complaint and related materials that are provided will be forwarded to the opposing parties named as the respondents. If either of the parties have additional relevant evidence that needs to be considered, then the materials should be sent to the attention of the Ethics Investigations Officer at the address displayed on this letterhead. Furthermore, if there is a delay in the submission of evidence that will extend beyond the response deadline date, then the Ethics Investigation Officer must be notified in order for all parties to be informed of the delay. This is necessary in order to afford due process to all interested parties.

If you have any questions or concerns, you may contact Manuel F. Vildasol the Ethics Investigation Officer at (505) 827-4022 or at manuel.vildasol@state.nm.us.

Sincerely,

Therefore, I am forwarding your complaint with the documentation provided to the respondent identified herein. If you have any additional documentation, please contact our office and speak with Manuel F. Vildasol, who is the Ethics Investigations Officer in order for him to forward the materials to the respondent. In your complaint, you allege that Michelle Mares, Third-Party Voter Registration Agent (VRA # 0807) failed to deliver or mail two (2) certificates of registration to the Secretary of State or County Clerk within forty-eight hours of its completion by the persons registering to vote or deliver them the next business day if the appropriate office is closed for that forty-eight-hour period pursuant to Section 1-4-49(B) NMSA 1978.

Note: The burden of proof lies with both parties, which means that the final results of the investigation are based on the information and documentation provided by the complainant and the respondent’s rebuttal.
PROCEDURE FOR HANDLING COMPLAINTS

The procedure for handling complaints is outlined below:

1) The Secretary of State receives the complaint.

2. The Secretary of State will then send a copy of the complaint to all interested parties, requesting a response within 10 business days of receipt of the letter. Receipt is presumed on the third calendar day after mailing. This inquiry letter is also provided to the complainant who is invited to submit additional evidence.

3. Responses are received and copied to the complainant. If complainant has submitted additional evidence, this is copied to respondent parties. The Secretary of State may request information from any source, may require responses to specific questions, conduct interviews, or require production of documents. If the Secretary of State requires such information, deadlines will be appropriately extended and all interested parties will be notified thereof.

4. All interested parties are advised by letter that they may submit additional evidence within 10 business days of the notice of response and that they will receive an expedited written determination of whether there is a basis for a reasonable belief of violation within 15 business days of the final date for submission. Parties are also notified that they can request an abbreviated administrative hearing in lieu of the expedited determination and an administrative proceeding will be conducted by the investigative officer within three (3) months unless reasonable continuances extend this period.

5. All interested parties will receive an expedited written determination of whether there is a basis for a reasonable belief of violation within 15 business days of the final date for submission unless there is a request for hearing.

In the event that there is a request for a hearing, the following procedures shall apply:

6. Upon request for a hearing, an investigative officer from the Secretary of State will be appointed to conduct an abbreviated administrative hearing. This will be an informal inquiry and attorneys are not required.

7. The Rules of Evidence shall not apply to the proceeding conducted before the investigative officer. The complainant bears the burden of proof. The complainant will present their case and each opposing interested party will have the right of cross examination. Opposing interested parties may then present evidence and testimony subject to cross examination. If no opposing evidence or testimony is presented, the complaint will be evaluated solely on the complainant’s evidence and testimony presented. All opening and closing arguments must be written and submitted in a timely manner. Opening statements are due five (5) business days prior to hearing and closing arguments are due two business days after hearing.

8. Within 15 days of the hearing, the Ethics Investigations Officer will provide a written determination of whether there is a basis for a reasonable belief of violation and if there is such a belief, the matter will be referred to the Attorney General’s Office for independent review and possible litigation.

Note: A copy of the complaint and related materials that are provided will be forwarded to the opposing party named as the respondent. If either of the parties have additional relevant evidence that needs to be considered, then the materials should be sent to the attention of the Ethics Investigations Officer at the address displayed on this letterhead. Furthermore, if there is a delay in the submission of evidence that will extend beyond the response deadline date, then the Ethics Investigation Officer must be notified in order for the opposing party to be informed of the delay. This is necessary in order to afford due process to all interested parties.

If you have any questions or concerns, you may contact Manuel F. Vildasol the Ethics Investigation Officer at (505) 827-4022 or at manuel.vildasol@state.nm.us.
