

DECLARATION OF LOREN AGUILLARD

My name is Loren Aguillard and I am over the age of 18 and fully competent to make this declaration. Under penalty of perjury, I declare the following:

1. I am a registered Georgia voter and resident in Fulton county.
2. I am a United States citizen and am 36 years old. I have not been declared mentally incompetent by a judge, and I am not currently serving a sentence for a felony conviction.
3. In early May, I submitted an application for an absentee ballot through the mail.
4. I work as a pharmacist at Walgreens and interact with customers who come to the store to pick up medicine. Although we have social-distancing measures in place at the store, there is always a chance that I am interacting with a customer who has COVID-19.
5. I also have a toddler at home and parents who live nearby who I interact with regularly. My dad is 75 years old and is a cancer patient, so he is in the “at-risk” category for COVID-19.
6. In March of this year I was diagnosed with Bell’s Palsy. I had to take a lot of steroids to treat my condition.
7. I have been following social-distancing measures as much as possible.

8. Because of my interaction with so many customers, my interactions with members of my family who are at high risk for the virus, and my recent diagnosis of Bell's Palsy, I thought it would be safer for me to vote through absentee ballot in this year's primary.
9. Unfortunately, I never ended up receiving an absentee ballot.
10. On Election Day, I voted in-person at my precinct. Thankfully, it didn't take too long, but I would have preferred to vote through absentee ballot during this pandemic.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Loren Aguillard
