1. I am a University of Wisconsin law student working as a legal intern for the American Civil Liberties Union of Wisconsin from June to August 2012.
2. On Thursday June 21, 2012 I went to a free breakfast run by the Milwaukee Homeless Veterans Initiative at St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church located at 55th and Greenfield in West Milwaukee, Wisconsin.
3. I went to St. John's to find veterans whose only form of identification was their Veteran's Identification Card (VIC).
3. Between 8:30a.m. and 10a.m. I obtained declarations from four veterans who only had a VIC and no other form of photo identification.
4. I explained in detail what the declarations said to the veterans before they completed and signed them.
5. True and correct copies of the four declarations that were signed are attached to this declaration.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
