Electoral Issues:

- 11-15-2011
  - Problem/Reason: Voters were not using provisional ballots. They did not understand they were regulars and had ID with printed names. All counted.

- 11-13-2011
  - Problem/Reason: Provisional votes were wrong but correct location.
  - Note: The precincts were AE, NA, and BAKL.

Please record on this page missing or tardy pollworkers, any equipment problems, discrepancy in ballot accounting, or other problems that may occur on election day. Note time of incident and all names of persons involved.

PROBLEMS TOO SMALL TO NOTE HERE:

1. Robert Runner, arrived at 5:40

2. John Runner, arrived at 6:02

If it should call Robert Baucus was put over to how's how about him to 10 a.m. in another building, I came back to do. I apologize profusely.

We allowed Eleanor Bell-Miller to vote regular. After completing NVR card for name change to Eleanor Bell, it should have been provisional.

A voter for party A said out because she could not wait in line to do provisional ballot. For name address change, be done.

Called 5:00 p.m. for more voter registration forms.

Please place this record in the metal transfer case.

Problem or Reason for Calling the Board of Elections:

- Joan Thomas: Where to vote — A
- Connie Hoover: To find out where she vote — Grove Street sent here without checking her address — had to send her back to Grove Street.
- Andrea Pishott: Registered at VS14 V. We did not have her in book, called 9-1-1 for her to re-register or vote provisional.

Call: 10:50AM

Voter's Name: Jennifer Annerino
Voter's Address: 223 Ohio Ave, McDonald, OH

Problem or Reason for Calling the Board of Elections: Jennifer Annerino Sargent's address 29th Avenue moved to 223 Ohio Ave. We sent her to McDonald to vote. They sent her back to our precinct. They told her she had to vote provisional in our precinct because she was in our book. Called BOE to confirm, they told me to send her back to McDonald and have them call BOE to confirm to let her vote in their precinct.

Subject: PRECINCTS 1A & 1B GIRARD OHIO

[...] ELECTION OFFICIAL,

I VOTED AT THE ABOVE PRECINCT, THERE IS ONLY ONE LINE INTO THE VENUE AND NO DISTINCTION AS TO WHICH PRECINCT IT IS FOR.
PEOPLE END UP WAITING TO ENTER 1B NO MATTER WHAT THE TRAFFIC IS FOR 1B.
THERE SHOULD BE AT LEAST TWO SEPARATE LANES MARKED TO IDENTIFY WHICH PRECINCT YOU ARE WAITING FOR.

I ASKED FOR THE PERSON IN CHARGE TO REGISTER MY SUGGESTION, BUT WAS TOLD NO ONE WAS THERE IN THAT CAPACITY.
PRECINCT 1B HAD TWO LINES AT THE TABLE BUT NO REAL DEFINITION WAS GIVEN TO THE PEOPLE
THAT ARE ENTERING THAT PRECINCT AS TO THE REASON FOR THE LINES.
GRANTED THE TRAFFIC IS HEAVY AND CERTAINLY THIS IS A GREAT TESTAMENT
TO A PRECIOUS FREEDOM, BUT THE LACK OF PREPARATION AND LOW COMMITMENT
BY BOARD OFFICIALS DOES NOT VALIDATE SUCH A FREEDOM

Section J: Polling Location Layout

Each polling location will have a precinct table for each precinct within that location, one Voter Assistance Table, one AutoMark ADA Voting Unit table and one overflow table (large elections only; to be utilized when all voting booths are occupied).

- The Precinct Table Judges #1 and #2 will sit at their respective precinct’s table.
- The DS200 Optical Scanner Judge will be stationed near his/her precinct’s DS200 Optical Scanner.
- The Poll Worker who is designated as the Voter Assistance Table Judge on the List of Assigned Workers, along with one additional Voter Assistance Table Judge from another precinct, will oversee the Voter Assistance Table (VAT). The Voter Assistance Table Judge, will process Provisional Voters and assist voters in finding their current and correct precinct and polling location. Any additional Voter Assistance Table Judges act as Greeter and move about the polling location, assisting voters with any questions they may have.
- The Polling Location Coordinator will oversee the entire polling location to ensure that all Election Day procedures are carried out effectively and efficiently.
