Harold Dean Trulear speaks to a room of PICO and Lifelines to Healing on returning citizen ministry and Healing Communities. Powerful stuff.

Ohio doesn't need Stand Your Ground. This bill goes far beyond Ohio's already reasonable self-defense law. It is dangerous, unfair, and the wrong priority for Ohio. Join our rally on Wednesday, Oct. 2 at 1pm in Columbus.

Our partners in Dayton had a great event last night against Stand Your Ground. This bill is dangerous, unfair on communities of color, and is the wrong priority for Ohio.

Add Ohio Police, Police Chiefs, and Prosecutors to the growing chorus against Stand Your Ground: "If a person has the opportunity and can safely retreat to avoid using deadly force, they ought to do it," said John Murphy, executive director of the Ohio Prosecuting Attorneys Association.
