O R D E R

Upon consideration of submissions relative to the Duke appellants' emergency motion for preliminary injunction pending appeal, the court denies the motion.

The court grants appellants' motions to expedite and to proceed on the original record.

The parties may supplement their memoranda in the district court with appellate briefs of no more than 15 pages. All parties must file their briefs by September 17, 2014. The United States is also invited to file a statement of its views on or before September 17, 2014.

This appeal is calendared for oral argument in Charlotte, North Carolina, on September 25, 2014.
