

Program on Data and Governance | 2018 Highlights

July 25, 2018

Hirsch testified at US Senate Subcommittee on Privacy, Technology, and the Law Roundtable

Senators Flake (R-AZ) and Coons (D-CT) organized a roundtable on privacy and consumer data protection. Director Hirsch participated in a free flowing conversation with the Senators, representatives of industry, and civil society to discuss current big data challenges to privacy and evaluate existing and proposed legislative and regulatory mechanism for protecting consumers in the big data era.

July 2-6, 2018

Hirsch taught IViR course on Privacy Law and Policy

Director Hirsch was a faculty member in the University of Amsterdam Institute for Information Law's Summer Course on Privacy Law and Policy focused on privacy law and policy related to the Internet, electronic communications, and social media. Hirsch joined expert faculty including Joris van Hoboken, Kristina Irion, Neil Richards, Chris Hoofnagle, and Frederik Borgesius.

January 25, 2018

Hirsch led Computers, Privacy, and Data Protection focused ethical analysis panel

Director Hirsch traveled to Brussels to moderate a Computers, Privacy and Data Protection Conference panel on "The Role of Ethical Analysis in Privacy and Data Protection Assessments" featuring Gemma Clavell, Eticas; Gry Hasselbalch, DataEthics; Evert-Ben van Veen, Medlawconsult; and Hilary Wandall, TrustArc.