A Rich Tradition, A Promising Future

Since its founding in 1891, the Moritz College of Law has played a leading role in the legal profession through countless contributions made by alumni and faculty. Graduates of the college reside in all 50 states, in 21 countries, and include justices of the Ohio Supreme Court, current and former U.S. senators and representatives, managing partners in law firms of all sizes, chief executive officers of Fortune 500 corporations, and attorneys with nonprofit organizations and public interest law firms. Employers throughout Ohio, the Midwest, and across the nation recruit from Ohio State because of the caliber of students enrolled and the quality of the legal education provided.

Admissions Highlights

- ✿ Students are drawn from throughout the United States and from several other countries.
- ✿ Forty-one percent of the entering class has been in the work force for one year or more.
- ✿ Applications may be submitted anytime after September 15; applications are reviewed on a “rolling basis” beginning in October.
- ✿ Applicants are encouraged to apply for admission and also to submit essays for scholarships concurrently.
- ✿ Applicants for admission may apply via the Law School Admissions Council application (lsac.org).
